JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 101st GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-SEVENTH DAY, MONDAY, MARCH 21, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Brian Seitz.

Father, we thank You for Your goodness to us, especially in that You graciously allowed us the time to be with family over the past week.

For the remainder of the session, and as we serve Missouri, I ask that You guide our thoughts, words and actions, that they might be honorable to You.

I ask for clarity of thought, a heart to serve and a desire not to seek vainglory, but to bring glory to You alone in all our decisions and actions.

I ask that You forgive us our sins when we go astray, and that the Holy Spirit will prick our hearts when we are tempted to do those things outside Your perfect will.

We ask these things in Jesus' name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the thirty-sixth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

THIRTY-EIGHTH DAY, TUESDAY, MARCH 22, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. (Ephesians 6:10)

God of grace and God of glory, pour Your power and grace on us as we wait upon You at this moment of prayer. May the power of Your presence permeate our hearts in this historic chamber.

When doubts disturb us, and worries weaken us, and frustrations follow us, You are the guiding light that we may see that the way of truth is the way of wisdom, the path of honesty is the path of honor, and the road of faithfulness is the road of faith.

Call us to the commanding convictions, refresh us with Your renewing spirit, and strengthen us with Your steadfast presence so essential to worthy tasks that are worthily accepted. By Your spirit, make us courteous in our conversations, friendly in our relationships, ready to serve Missouri with all our hearts, and to truly represent those who have sent us here.

Bless our people with Your favor, make wars to cease, and cause peace to come to our world, especially in the Ukraine.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Sydney Baker, Aspen Meyer, Brynn Meyer, Devynn Phoenix Lay Yakel, Josie Unnerstall, Mackenzie Woods, Hayden Woods, Jack Brogus, and Shane Powers.

The Journal of the thirty-seventh day was approved as printed by the following vote:

"Such expenditures deferred under the provisions of this section are subject to commission prudence review in the next general rate proceeding after deferral."; and

Further amend said bill, Page 32, Section 393.1700, Line 723, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:

"393.1715. 1. An electrical corporation may petition the commission for a determination of the ratemaking principles and treatment, as proposed by the electrical corporation, that will apply to the reflection in base rates of the electrical corporation's capital and noncapital costs associated with the proposed retirement of one or more of the electrical corporation's generating facilities. Without limiting the foregoing, such principles and treatment may also establish the retirement date and useful life parameters used to set depreciation rates for such facilities. Except as provided for in subsection 4 of this section, the ratemaking principles and treatment approved by the commission under this section for such facilities shall apply to the determination of the revenue requirement in each of the electrical corporation's post-determination general rate proceedings until such time as such facility is fully depreciated on the electrical corporation's books.

2. If the commission fails to issue a determination within two hundred fifteen days that a petition for determination of ratemaking principles and treatment is filed, the ratemaking principles and treatment proposed by the petitioning electrical corporation shall be deemed to have been approved by the commission.

3. Subject to the provisions of subsection 4 of this section, ratemaking principles and treatment approved by the commission, or deemed to have been approved under subsection 2 of this section, shall be binding for ratemaking purposes.

4. (1) An electrical corporation with ratemaking principles and treatment approved by the commission, or deemed to have been approved under subsection 2 of this section, shall monitor the major factors and circumstances relating to the facility to which such principles and treatment apply. Such factors and circumstances include, but are not limited to:

- (a) Terrorist activity or an act of God;
- (b) A significant change in federal or state tax laws;
- (c) A significant change in federal utility laws or regulations or a significant change in generally accepted accounting principles;
- (d) An unexpected, extended outage or shutdown of a major generating unit, other than any major generating unit shut down due to an extended outage at the time of the approval of the ratemaking principles and treatment;
- (e) A significant change in the cost or reliability of power generation technologies;
- (f) A significant change in fuel prices and wholesale electric market conditions;

- (g) A significant change in the cost or effectiveness of emission control technologies;
- (h) A significant change in the price of emission allowances;
- (i) A significant change in the electrical corporation's load forecast;
- (j) A significant change in capital market conditions;
- (k) A significant change in the scope or effective dates of environmental regulations; or
- (l) A significant change in federal or state environmental laws.

(2) If the electrical corporation determines that one or more major factor or circumstance has changed in a manner that warrants a change in the approved ratemaking principles and treatment, then it shall file a notice in the docket in which the approved ratemaking principles and treatment were established within forty-five days of any such determination. In its notification, the electrical corporation shall:

- (a) Explain and specify the changes it contends are appropriate to the ratemaking principles and treatment and the reasons for the proposed changes;
- (b) Provide a description of the alternatives that it evaluated and the process that it went through in developing its proposed changes; and
- (c) Provide detailed workpapers that support the evaluation and the process whereby proposed changes were developed.

(3) If a party has concerns regarding the proposed changes, that party shall file a notice of its concerns within thirty days of the electrical corporation's filing. If the parties agree on a resolution of the concerns, the agreement shall be submitted to the commission for approval. If the parties do not reach agreement on changes to the ratemaking principles and treatment within ninety days of the date the electrical corporation filed its notice, whether the previously approved ratemaking and treatment will be changed shall be determined by the commission. If a party to the docket in which the approved ratemaking principles and treatment were approved believes that one or more major factor or circumstance has changed in a manner that warrants a change in the approved ratemaking principles and treatment and if the electrical corporation does not agree the principles and treatment should be changed, such party shall file a notice in the docket in which the approved ratemaking principles and treatment were established within forty-five days of any such determination. In its notification, such party shall:

- (a) Explain and specify the changes it contends are appropriate to the ratemaking principles and treatment and the reasons for the proposed changes;
- (b) Provide a description of the alternatives that it evaluated and the process that it went through in developing its proposed changes; and
- (c) Provide detailed workpapers that support the evaluation and the process whereby proposed changes were developed.

(4) If a party, including the electrical corporation, has concerns regarding the proposed changes, that party shall file a notice of its concerns within thirty days of the other party's filing. If the parties do not reach agreement on changes to the ratemaking principles and treatment within ninety days of the date the notice was filed, whether the previously approved ratemaking and treatment will be changed shall be determined by the commission.

5. A determination of ratemaking principles and treatment under this section does not preclude an electrical corporation from also petitioning the commission under either or both of sections 393.1700 and 393.1705, provided that any costs to which such ratemaking principles and treatment would have applied in the electrical corporation's general rate proceedings which become funded by securitized utility tariff bond proceeds from a securitized utility tariff bond issued under section 393.1700 shall not thereafter be reflected in the electrical corporation's base rates.

6. 7. The commission may promulgate rules necessary to implement the provisions of sections 393.1700 to 393.1715. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2021, shall be invalid and void."; and

THIRTY-NINTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 23, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

He who is slow to anger is better than the mighty, and he who rules his spirit than he who takes a city.
(Proverbs 16:32)

Almighty God, our heavenly helper, before whom we bow in adoration and to whom we lift our hearts in prayer, help us to improve our self-control that we may do our duties and respond to our heavy responsibilities with a confident courage and a healthy humility.

May we feel Your guiding hand through all the scattered details of our daily life, and in the stress of this hour may we hear Your still small voice and feel underneath us Your everlasting arms holding us steady, keeping us strong, and leading us in the way we should go.

Bless all efforts to remove violence and to reduce prejudice, and prosper all endeavors to redouble our goodwill and to reaffirm our faith in You and in our show-me state.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Audrey Butz, Lyla Voges, Arie Jerden, Lucy Hund, Lydia Kelley, Kelly Lavin, and Lilah Vawter.

The Journal of the thirty-eighth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

- (2) At the time the petition is filed, the person has not been found guilty of any other misdemeanor or felony, not including violations of the traffic regulations provided under chapters 301, 302, 303, 304, and 307, during the time period specified for the underlying offense, violation, or infraction in subdivision (1) of this subsection;
- (3) The person has satisfied all obligations relating to any such disposition, including the payment of any fines or restitution;
- (4) The person does not have charges pending;
- (5) The petitioner's habits and conduct demonstrate that the petitioner is not a threat to the public safety of the state; and
- (6) The expungement is consistent with the public welfare and the interests of justice warrant the expungement.

A pleading by the petitioner that such petitioner meets the requirements of subdivisions (5) and (6) of this subsection shall create a rebuttable presumption that the expungement is warranted so long as the criteria contained in subdivisions (1) to (4) of this subsection are otherwise satisfied. The burden shall shift to the prosecuting attorney, circuit attorney, or municipal prosecuting attorney to rebut the presumption. A victim of an offense, violation, or infraction listed in the petition shall have an opportunity to be heard at any hearing held under this section, and the court may make a determination based solely on such victim's testimony.

6. A petition to expunge records related to an arrest for an eligible offense, violation, or infraction may be made in accordance with the provisions of this section to a court of competent jurisdiction in the county where the petitioner was arrested no earlier than three years from the date of arrest; provided that, during such time, the petitioner has not been charged and the petitioner has not been found guilty of any misdemeanor or felony offense.

7. If the court determines that such person meets all the criteria set forth in subsection 5 of this section for each of the offenses, violations, or infractions listed in the petition for expungement, the court shall enter an order of expungement. In all cases under this section, the court shall issue an order of expungement or dismissal within six months of the filing of the petition. A copy of the order of expungement shall be provided to the petitioner and each entity possessing records subject to the order, and, upon receipt of the order, each entity shall ~~delete~~ destroy any record, except a record of arrest, in its possession relating to any offense, violation, or infraction listed in the petition, in the manner established by section 610.120. The records and files maintained in any administrative or court proceeding in a municipal, associate, or circuit court for any offense, infraction, or violation ordered expunged under this section shall be confidential and only available to the parties or by order of the court for good cause shown. The central repository shall request the Federal Bureau of Investigation to expunge the records from its files.

8. The order shall not limit any of the petitioner's rights that were restricted as a collateral consequence of such person's criminal record, and such rights shall be restored upon issuance of the order of expungement. For purposes of 18 U.S.C. Section 921(a)(33)(B)(ii), an order of expungement granted pursuant to this section shall be considered a complete removal of all effects of the expunged conviction. Except as otherwise provided under this section, the effect of such order shall be to restore such person to the status he or she occupied prior to such arrests, pleas, trials, or convictions as if such events had never taken place. No person as to whom such order has been entered shall be held thereafter under any provision of law to be guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a false statement by reason of his or her failure to recite or acknowledge such arrests, pleas, trials, convictions, or expungement in response to an inquiry made of him or her and no such inquiry shall be made for information relating to an expungement, except the petitioner shall disclose the expunged offense, violation, or infraction to any court when asked or upon being charged with any subsequent offense, violation, or infraction. The expunged offense, violation, or infraction may be considered a prior offense in determining a sentence to be imposed for any subsequent offense that the person is found guilty of committing.

9. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 8 of this section to the contrary, a person granted an expungement shall disclose any expunged offense, violation, or infraction when the disclosure of such information is necessary to complete any application for:

- (1) A license, certificate, or permit issued by this state to practice such individual's profession;
- (2) Any license issued under chapter 313 or permit issued under chapter 571;
- (3) Paid or unpaid employment with an entity licensed under chapter 313, any state-operated lottery, or any emergency services provider, including any law enforcement agency;
- (4) Employment with any federally insured bank or savings institution or credit union or an affiliate of such institution or credit union for the purposes of compliance with 12 U.S.C. Section 1829 and 12 U.S.C. Section 1785;
- (5) Employment with any entity engaged in the business of insurance or any insurer for the purpose of complying with 18 U.S.C. Section 1033, 18 U.S.C. Section 1034, or other similar law which requires an employer engaged in the business of insurance to exclude applicants with certain criminal convictions from employment; or
- (6) Employment with any employer that is required to exclude applicants with certain criminal convictions from employment due to federal or state law, including corresponding rules and regulations.

An employer shall notify an applicant of the requirements under subdivisions (4) to (6) of this subsection. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, an expunged offense, violation, or infraction shall not be grounds for automatic disqualification of an applicant, but may be a factor for denying employment, or a professional license, certificate, or permit; except that, an offense, violation, or infraction expunged under the provisions of this section may be grounds for automatic disqualification if the application is for employment under subdivisions (4) to (6) of this subsection.

10. A person who has been granted an expungement of records pertaining to a misdemeanor or felony offense, an ordinance violation, or an infraction may answer "no" to an employer's inquiry into whether the person has ever been convicted of a crime if, after the granting of the expungement, the person has no public record of a misdemeanor or felony offense, an ordinance violation, or an infraction. The person, however, shall answer such an inquiry affirmatively and disclose his or her criminal convictions, including any offense or violation expunged under this section or similar law, if the employer is required to exclude applicants with certain criminal convictions from employment due to federal or state law, including corresponding rules and regulations.

11. If the court determines that the petitioner has not met the criteria for any of the offenses, violations, or infractions listed in the petition for expungement or the petitioner has knowingly provided false information in the petition, the court shall enter an order dismissing the petition. Any person whose petition for expungement has been dismissed by the court for failure to meet the criteria set forth in subsection 5 of this section may not refile another petition until a year has passed since the date of filing for the previous petition.

12. A person may be granted more than one expungement under this section provided that during his or her lifetime, the total number of offenses, violations, or infractions for which orders of expungement are granted to the person shall not exceed the following limits:

- (1) Not more than two misdemeanor offenses or ordinance violations that have an authorized term of imprisonment; and
- (2) Not more than one felony offense.

A person may be granted expungement under this section for any number of infractions. Nothing in this section shall prevent the court from maintaining records to ensure that an individual has not exceeded the limitations of this subsection. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or impair in any way the subsequent use of any record expunged under this section of any arrests or findings of guilt by a law enforcement agency, criminal justice agency, prosecuting attorney, circuit attorney, or municipal prosecuting attorney, including its use as a prior offense, violation, or infraction.

13. The court shall make available a form for pro se petitioners seeking expungement, which shall include the following statement: "I declare under penalty of perjury that the statements made herein are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief."

14. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or restrict the availability of expungement to any person under any other law."; and"; and

2. As used in this section, the following terms shall mean:

(1) "Because" or "because of", as it relates to the adverse decision or action, the person's status as a protected person was the motivating factor;

(2) "Employer", an entity that has six or more employees for each working day in each of twenty or more calendar weeks in the current or preceding calendar year. "Employer" shall not include the state of Missouri or its agencies, instrumentalities, or political subdivisions, including but not limited to any public institution of higher education, a corporation wholly owned by the state of Missouri, an individual employed by an employer, or corporations and associations owned or operated by religious or sectarian organizations; except that, "employer" shall include all public employers;

5. A protected person aggrieved by a violation of this section shall have a private right of action for actual damages for violations of this section but not for punitive damages. However, if a private right of action for damages exists under another statutory or regulatory scheme, whether under state or federal law, no private right of action shall exist under this ~~[statute]~~ section.

6. Any party to any action initiated under this section may demand a trial by jury.

In applying this subdivision, the provisions of section 510.263 shall be applied as though liquidated damages were punitive damages and as though the amounts referenced in subdivisions (1) and (2) of this subsection were compensatory damages.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

FORTIETH DAY, THURSDAY, MARCH 24, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Happy is the man that finds wisdom and the man that gets understanding. (Proverbs 3:13)

Almighty God, our Creator, who has made us for Thyself so that our hearts are restless until they find rest in You, lead us into the green pastures of Your presence and beside the still waters of Your patience, that our strength may be renewed, our spirit restored, and power for daily tasks be given us.

Grant to us wisdom for the facing of this hour and courage for the living of these days. Make us equal to the challenge of this time and more than a match for the modern mood which would motivate our movements in the people's house.

Keep our faith steady, our hope stable, and our goodwill strong, that we may be the instruments of Your will in leading our beautiful Missouri to a higher plane of unity with liberty and justice for all.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Tanner Van Dyne, Sydney Van Dyne, Haleigh Van Dyne, Hunter Van Dyne, Levi LaVo, Kennedy LaVo, Rose Helen Hurlbert, Joshua James Hurlbert, Rebekah Marie Hurlbert, Knava Speakman, and Mariah Johnson.

The Journal of the thirty-ninth day was approved as printed.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

THIRTY-THIRD DAY, MONDAY, MARCH 7, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Allen Andrews.

Holy and Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth, King of Kings and Lord of Lords, at the sound of Your great name the mountains quake before You and the hills melt away. The earth trembles at Your presence, the world and all who live in it. We invite You into our midst today and forevermore and ask that Your ways will be found in us and the people of our great state.

Forgive us, O God, as we have turned from You and have become a faithless, idolatrous, and wayward nation.

Forgive us, O God, of our wicked ways and our arrogant pride.

Forgive us, O God, of our haughty eyes, our lying tongues, and our feet that are quick to rush into evil.

O God, please forgive us for the people we have become. Self-centered indulgence, pride, and a lack of shame over sin are now emblems of our American lifestyle, yet the farther we drift from You, O God, the more our world spirals out of control.

Stir our hearts and have mercy on us, O God. Forgive us of our rebellion and sin.

We do not deserve Your forgiveness, but through Christ, and only Him, we humbly plead for Your grace and mercy. Purify and cleanse our hearts as we repent of our sin, O God, and blot out our transgressions by Your abounding love.

Your word tells us that whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty. Please, God, I pray for my colleagues and their families, and for all people near and far. May we call upon Your name and not harden our hearts toward You. May we confess with our mouths and believe in our hearts that Jesus Christ is Lord and receive the love, the joy, the peace, the forgiveness, and the everlasting life by placing our trust and hope in You.

All for the glory of God.

Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the thirty-second day was approved as printed by the following vote:

"167.151. 1. The school board of any district, in its discretion, may admit to the school pupils not entitled to free instruction and prescribe the tuition fee to be paid by them, except as provided in subdivision (2) of subsection 3 of this section and in sections 167.121, 167.131, 167.132, and 167.895.

2. Orphan children, children with only one parent living, and children whose parents do not contribute to their support—if the children are between the ages of six and twenty years and are unable to pay tuition—may attend the schools of any district in the state in which they have a permanent or temporary home without paying a tuition fee.

3. (1) For all school years ending on or before June 30, 2023, any ~~[person]~~ individual who pays a school tax in any other district than that in which ~~[he]~~ such individual resides may send ~~[his]~~ such individual's children to any public school in the district in which the tax is paid and receive as a credit on the amount charged for tuition the amount of the school tax paid to the district; except that any ~~[person]~~ individual who owns real estate of which eighty acres or more are used for agricultural purposes and upon which ~~[his]~~ such individual's residence is situated may send ~~[his]~~ such individual's children to public school in any school district in which a part of such real estate, contiguous to that upon which ~~[his]~~ such individual's residence is situated, lies and shall not be charged tuition therefor; so long as thirty-five percent of the real estate is located in the school district of choice. The school district of choice shall count the children in its average daily attendance for the purpose of distribution of state aid through the foundation formula.

(2) For all school years beginning on and after July 1, 2023, an owner of residential real property or agricultural real property or a named beneficiary of a trust that owns residential real property or agricultural real property and that pays a school tax in any district other than the district in which such owner or beneficiary resides may send up to four of such owner's or beneficiary's children to a public school in any district in which such owner or trust pays such school tax. The school district or public school of choice shall count a child as a resident attending under this subdivision in its average daily attendance for the purpose of distribution of state aid through the foundation formula.

4. (1) For all school years ending on or before June 30, 2023, any owner of agricultural land who, ~~[pursuant to] under subdivision (1) of subsection 3 of this section, has the option of sending [his] such individual's children to the public schools of more than one district [shall exercise such option as provided in this subsection.—~~ Such person shall send written notice to all school districts involved specifying to which school district his children will attend by June thirtieth in which such a school year begins. If notification is not received, such children shall attend the school in which the majority of his property lies. ~~Such person shall not send any of his children to the public schools of any district other than the one to which he has sent notice pursuant to this subsection in that school year or in which the majority of his property lies without paying tuition to such school district].~~

(2) For all school years beginning on or after July 1, 2023, any owner of real property or named beneficiary of a trust that owns real property who elects to exercise the option provided in subdivision (2) of subsection 3 of this section shall exercise such option as provided in this subdivision. Such owner or beneficiary shall send written notice to all school districts involved specifying which school district each child will attend thirty days prior to enrollment. When providing such notice, such owner or beneficiary shall present proof of such owner's or trust's payment of at least three thousand dollars of school taxes levied on the real property within such school district and ownership of the real property for not less than three years. Such proof may be determined by multiplying the school taxes paid on the most recent property tax receipt by the years of property ownership.

5. If a pupil is attending school in a district other than the district of residence and the pupil's parent is teaching in the school district or is a regular employee of the school district which the pupil is attending, then the district in which the pupil attends school shall allow the pupil to attend school upon payment of tuition in the same manner in which the district allows other pupils not entitled to free instruction to attend school in the district. The provisions of this subsection shall apply only to pupils attending school in a district which has an enrollment in excess of thirteen thousand pupils and not in excess of fifteen thousand pupils and which district is located in a county ~~[of the first classification]~~ with a charter form of government which has a population in excess of six hundred thousand persons and not in excess of nine hundred thousand persons."; and

THIRTY-FOURTH DAY, TUESDAY, MARCH 8, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.
(II Corinthians 13:11)

Almighty God, strong to save and eager to help, who is always revealing Your way, speak to us this moment and make known Your will, as we pray that Your spirit may live in our hearts.

Make us worthy in our devotion to truth, sincere in our desire for honor, gentle in our dedication to harmony, and genuine in our decision to seek justice and to pursue it until we possess it.

Bless these representatives of our state that they may walk with You as they make decisions looking forward to a better day. Strengthen our people that with genuine faith, humble spirit, and patriotic fervor they may find themselves by doing Your will, and by living together in peace, usher in a new day of peace for the citizens of the Show-me state and bless our Missouri Supreme Court.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Sergeant-at-Arms announced the approach of the Honorable Paul C. Wilson, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Missouri. Chief Justice Wilson was duly escorted to the House Chamber and to the Speaker's dais, where he delivered the following message to the Assembly in Joint Session.

STATE OF THE JUDICIARY ADDRESS BY CHIEF JUSTICE PAUL C. WILSON

Introduction

Speaker Vescovo, Lieutenant Governor Kehoe, President Pro Tem Schatz, members of the 101st General Assembly, statewide office holders, cabinet members and other executive branch officials: thank you for this opportunity to speak to you this morning.

The concept of separation of powers is one of our Constitutional cornerstones, but it can be misleading. Separate does not mean adversarial, and it never has. In truth, our constitution demands just the opposite. Despite the different roles we play in our system of checks and balances, all three branches must continually communicate and cooperate if we are to serve the constitution and the people well.

Obviously, my address this morning is largely ceremonial, but that does not mean it doesn't matter. I think it's important for the people of our great state to see us gathered on occasions like this – together – demonstrating the cooperation that goes on, not just on this day, but throughout the year. For that reason, and in that spirit, I deeply appreciate your willingness to listen to what I have to say.

There are somewhere north of 200 of us in this room, and we all asked to be here. No one made us take the path of civil service that brought us here. Every one of us is a volunteer, and we worked hard to have the chance to serve this state and its people. Others can rail against “the government” as if it were some nameless, faceless entity, but we in this room know better. You, me, and the nearly 50,000 other public servants who live and work in virtually every community in this state, we are the government. Government is people and, for today's purposes, it's us.

I was born and raised here in Jefferson City, and maybe that's why this idea is so important to me and so ingrained in who I am. The legislature wasn't just some headline to me. Instead, it was my neighbor and childhood idol Jim Strong, who served in this chamber and then in the Senate down the hall. The legislature was my Uncle Jim – and all those he would introduce me to on the many afternoons I came to watch him in this building.

Most of the kids I grew up with had parents who worked in government, at all levels. My dad served many years as a judge in the municipal and associate circuit courts. My mom worked in public health for nearly 50 years, starting as a school nurse and ending up as a division director in the department of health in the Ashcroft administration.

When you grow up here in Jefferson City, even statewide office holders are just people, as I learned one cold winter's day 50-some years ago when I accidentally knocked Jack Danforth off his feet at the skating rink. My Dad helped him, and me, up, and then said to me: “You know who that is, don't you!?” Well, of course, I didn't ... but I quickly learned and, Senator, if you're listening, please accept this very overdue apology!

My father is no longer around to pick me up when I make a mistake, but my wife Laura is. She's the love of my life for more than 30 years, and she's with us in the gallery today. Please make her feel welcome.

The point is, I grew up believing that government is people – well-meaning, hardworking people – and I believe that still today. I promise you it's no less true of me or my colleagues than it is of you or yours. We all have different jobs, and we serve in different ways, but we are united in the spirit and goal of service. This unity of purpose brings us together this morning so the people of this state can see us – gathered in their name – to discuss their business ... together.

So, let's get down to business

Court employees

The state of the judicial branch is sound. Last year, despite all its challenges, more than 750,000 circuit court cases were resolved. While the pandemic impacted our backlog, its effect was not as big or as widespread as some feared, and we are working to clear it.

And, when I say we, I mean them – the 350 trial judges, and the more-than-3,000 court clerks, bailiffs, court reporters, juvenile officers, juvenile detention officers, and all the other staff who really make up the judicial branch. It's not the seven of us – it's all of them and the work they do. We know it, they know it, and I want all of you to know it too.

They are the ones who kept the courts open through the pandemic. They are the ones who work to help keep Missouri kids safe. Who collect and disperse more than $100 million dollars every year. Who schedule every court hearing and help people know when and where they're supposed to be.

Our people are your people, your constituents, your friends and neighbors, and they live and work in every corner of this state. They are the face and beating heart of your judicial system. The work they do is incredibly important and often incredibly difficult, and I would ask you to help me recognize them now.

On their behalf, I thank you for the cost-of-living increases you have been able to give in recent years and, especially, the one you approved just a few days ago. That kind of increase is important to our employees, not merely in terms of buying power, but because it demonstrates that you in this chamber know who they are. You see them, and you proudly recognize the work they do.

But there is more we can, and need, to do. Like the rest of government, we struggle to retain experienced workers and recruit new employees to careers in the courts. All too often, we spend precious tax dollars recruiting and training people, giving them the skills and experience we need them to have, only to see them move to better-paying, private-sector jobs after our training is complete. A market-based approach to compensation will give us a fighting chance to attract and keep expert staff in our courtrooms and courthouses. Those folks want to serve, just as all of us do, and competitive compensation will allow them to do that. By continuing to work with you, we can find a common-sense, long-term solution to this problem.

Judges

I urge each of you to reach out to your local judges. Spend some time in your local courthouses. Talk with your local court staff, and see what's happening there. Decide for yourselves how busy Missouri's courts are, how fair they are, and how well we serve the laws you write and the constitutional principles every one of us has sworn to protect. My hope is you'll see ways we can work together to improve our justice system.

One reason I ask you to do this is because so many of our judges are new. In the last four years alone, 40 percent of all the trial and appellate judges have been new to their positions. Some of those changes came as the result of local elections, but more than three-fourths of the new judges over these last four years – including 109 trial judges and 13 appellate judges – were appointed by the governor either under article IV, section 4, or under our constitution's nonpartisan court plan.

One of these recent appointees is Judge Robin Ransom, the newest member of the Supreme Court. She is a native of St. Louis. She worked as a public defender, a prosecutor, a family court staff attorney, a court commissioner and then a circuit judge. In 2019, Governor Parson elevated her to the Court of Appeals and then, last May, appointed her to the Supreme Court. She is not only the owner/operator of the most infectious smile you've ever seen, but she also just might be the best bowler in this room! We could not be more thrilled to work with her. Please join me in recognizing our newest judge.

Court security

With the judicial branch working in more than 120 courthouses around the state, security – for citizens, lawyers, judges and other court personnel – has always been a priority.

Thankfully, security in our courthouses has come a long way since 1992, when a man shot four people in a St. Louis County courtroom and then executed his wife on the witness stand. But security risks continue, they're on the rise, and they are no longer just inside the courthouse. Those of us in public service are increasingly vulnerable. As public servants, we know we are not – and should not be – immune from public scrutiny and criticism ... it comes with the job. But none of us – or our families – should be put in harm's way.

In 2005, a judge's husband and mother were murdered in Illinois. In 2015, a judge survived an assassination attempt outside her home in Texas. And, in 2020, a New Jersey judge's husband was shot and her son killed in an attack meant for her. All three states responded with laws aimed at protecting the private personal information of judges and their families, but those laws came too late to prevent those tragedies. We owe it to the those who serve in Missouri's judiciary not to learn – in the worst possible way – that we, too, did too little, too late.

Missouri judges have been harassed online and at home, they've been threatened, and they've had their personal information posted on the web. Eleven states have already passed laws enhancing safety for judges, and more are considering such legislation now. We appreciate Representative DeGroot's efforts in this area and believe that legislative protections for Missouri's judges, together with the governor's budget recommendations you're now considering, are a good start – and we look forward to working with you on this issue as well.

Court technology

Online services are revolutionizing the courts just as they are the rest of government. This was true before COVID, and the last two years have greatly accelerated this trend. When conditions limited the number and types of hearings that could be held in person, we held thousands of hearings online, in virtual courtrooms. This approach made it possible to keep the work of the judiciary moving, and it was well received by those the courts are here to serve. Data from around the country shows that virtual proceedings not only make courts more efficient, but they also increase access to justice for many.

But this demand for increased online services highlights how much more difficult it is for some to make use of those services than others. There can be no doubt the “digital divide” is real. And it can be caused as much by geography as by poverty. Courts, whether virtual or in person, must be equally open and accessible for all Missourians, regardless of who you are or where you live.

This is why we’re excited by Governor Parson’s recommendations for broadband expansion around the state. Increased bandwidth, especially for our rural courthouses and the communities they serve, will help us better utilize online services to increase efficiency and access, making your courts more user-friendly for everyone.

Treatment courts

Those logistical issues – compensation, security, and infrastructure – are important, but only because they make it possible for the judicial branch to fulfill the role assigned to us. I want to turn now to some of the more creative work going on in our courts, work that presents continued opportunities for cooperation among our three branches.

One recurring theme in State of the Judiciary addresses over the past 20 years has been drug courts. They have been one of the greatest collaborative successes showing what is possible when the three branches work together with creativity and a commitment to serving Missourians better.

By identifying appropriate offenders and diverting them from prison to treatment, we – together – found a better way to serve not only those individuals, but also their families and society as a whole. This approach is cost effective, to be sure, but more importantly, it’s fair ... and just. These programs stand as proof that our justice system often does better when it responds to the whole person and not merely to their conduct. This was true more than a century ago when legislation created the very first diversion court, which we now call juvenile courts, and it remains true today.

Veterans courts

But there is another diversion court, another form of treatment court, that I believe needs the same sort of sustained cooperation and commitment that – together – we have given drug courts and juvenile courts in this state. I’m talking about veterans courts.

As home to Fort Leonard Wood, Whiteman Air Force Base, and many other installations, Missouri is proud to host some of the most elite fighting men and women in the world. But we are equally proud when service members choose to make Missouri their home after they leave active duty. As Governor Parson noted in his State of the State address, Missouri ranks ninth in the nation as home for our retired military.

Sadly, however, the burdens of military service do not magically disappear the moment a veteran leaves active duty. For some, those burdens can lead to mental health struggles that manifest themselves in substance abuse and conduct that, unfortunately, can land them in our justice system.

Then, our choice is clear. We can view those veterans solely in terms of their conduct, or we can look at the context from which their conduct arises and see whether treatment and other forms of support can produce a better outcome, both for the veterans and for all of us they have served.

Make no mistake: Missouri veterans courts work. We now have 15 programs serving 40 counties and, in the past five years alone, they've graduated more than 360 former service men and women. One reason these programs work so well is the role that volunteer veterans and active-duty soldiers play as mentors. No one can help a veteran like someone who's walked a mile – and probably a thousand miles – in their combat boots. Missouri veterans courts have demonstrated the kind of success we've come to expect from drug courts and other treatment courts ... and now it's time we do more.

Today, veterans courts serve only a third of our local jurisdictions, largely clustered around VA hospitals and clinics. Outside of those areas, however, resources are scarce. The simple truth is that veterans who need help throughout most of Missouri will not have access to a veterans court should they find themselves on the wrong side of the law. We can work together to fix this, and I hope you will agree we owe it to these men and women as the very least we can do to honor the sacrifices they've made.

Cooperative solutions

And there are other examples where our three branches have communicated and cooperated to better serve Missouri and her people:

- The Justice Reinvestment Initiative led by the department of corrections;
- the Partnership for Child Safety and Well-Being, where we work together with the children's division, youth services, and the department of mental health;
- and the initiative we call Leading Change in Criminal Justice, which helps local stakeholders better coordinate services for individuals with co-occurring mental health challenges and substance use disorders.

And the list goes on and on and on. Leaders from across government ... people working together to empower local solutions. Are you sensing a winning formula? I hope so.

So, I am happy to report that the State of the Judiciary is sound, and the future is bright. While I've mentioned a few of the ways we can work – and have worked – together, the opportunities for cooperation are limited only by our creativity and our courage.

Conclusion

Missouri has always had her share of challenges. For example, as you all know, fire destroyed the state Capitol in 1911. But, as Missourians always do, we rebuilt, and this magnificent building was the result.

Yet the beauty of the design and the quality of the work that went into this building were not a celebration of what Missouri was, or a salute to leaders who already served. Instead, I believe this building – and, in particular, this chamber, The People's Chamber – was designed and built as a monument to what Missouri can be, and as a challenge to all those who would seek to lead in the future.

The commission overseeing the new Capitol project identified 14 qualities – characteristics the people of Missouri should aspire to embody. But I think it's instructive that – of all the places around the Capitol that the commission might have chosen to display these qualities – they chose here. Those 14 traits are literally carved into the walls of this chamber. They have stood here for more than a century as a silent challenge to all those who sought to lead.

Even now, today, they challenge you and me to find these virtues in ourselves and in each other.

To find Honor and Truth and Charity,
To find Justice and Equality and Liberty, and all the rest.

To find them within ourselves and in each other – and to let those virtues guide the work we've volunteered to do.

And yet, as I look at these virtues, I can't help but notice the one that isn't there. Courage. Maya Angelou, a native of St. Louis and one of America's greatest poets, once said:

Courage is the most important of all the virtues, because without courage you can't practice any other virtue consistently. You can practice any virtue erratically, but nothing consistently without courage.

You see, it takes courage to lead; to make the decision you know is right but may not be popular; to listen and cooperate and compromise; to build a future for everyone and not merely those who look and sound like us. There is no tomorrow for any of us that is not the tomorrow for all of us, and that future will only be as bright as we make it.

So, will those of us who have gathered in this chamber today have what it takes to practice these virtues?

To practice Justice and Truth ... Liberty and Honor ... Equality and Charity ... and all the rest?

And will we have the Courage needed to practice them consistently?

With God's help and blessings, I believe we will.

Thank you.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

THIRTY-FIFTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 9, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

The hand of our God is upon all of them for good that seek Him; (Ezra 8:22)

Eternal God, our Creator, we, Your humble servants, bow before You at the altar of prayer. As we remember Your unfailing goodness which has blessed us all our days, we pray for Your awesome spirit to move within our hearts as we start our deliberations this day.

We acknowledge our shortcomings, our selfishness and our sins. Forgive us, we pray You, when we fall short of Your will for us and Your way for our state. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of Your Holy Spirit that we may think better, speak better, and do better than ever before.

We pray for those in positions of influence in our state that they may lead our people in the right and just paths. Lay Your hand in blessing upon our governor, our speaker, the members of this House, and all who labor with them. Give them the assurance that with You great things are possible. May our faith be renewed, our hope restored, and good will revived in all our hearts in the People's House.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Eliza Salladay.

The Journal of the thirty-fourth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

"160.565. 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Extended Learning Opportunities Act".

2. As used in this section, the following terms mean:

(1) "Extended learning opportunity", an out-of-classroom learning experience that is approved by the state board of education, a school board, or a charter school and that provides a student with:

(a) Enrichment opportunities;
(b) Career readiness or employability skills opportunities including, but not limited to, internships; preapprenticeships; or apprenticeships; or

(c) Any other approved educational opportunity;

(2) "Parent", a student's parent, guardian, or other person having control or custody of such student;

(3) "Student", any child attending an elementary or secondary public school in grades kindergarten through twelve.

3. Beginning with the 2023-24 school year, the state board of education and each local school board shall routinely inform students and parents of the ability for students to earn credit for participating in extended learning opportunities. Employees of the state board of education and public schools may assist students and parents in completing enrollment processes required for participating in approved extended learning opportunities. No student or parent shall be required to obtain permission from the student's school district or charter school to enroll in an extended learning opportunity. Before participating in any extended learning opportunity, the student and at least one parent shall sign an agreement detailing all program requirements in a form developed by the state board of education.

4. An extended learning opportunity shall count as a credit toward graduation requirements and the achievement of applicable state standards for students. To receive credit, a student shall submit a written request for credit and proof of successful completion of the extended learning opportunity to a designated administrator of the school the student attends.

5. The state board of education shall adopt, and each local school district shall distribute and implement, extended learning opportunities policies that provide all of the following:

(1) An application process for accepting and approving extended learning opportunities offered for credit from outside entities;

(2) A list of entities that are eligible to submit applications to offer extended learning opportunities including, but not limited to:

(a) Nonprofit organizations;

(b) Businesses with established locations;

(5) Criteria that school districts and charter schools shall use to award a certificate of completion and credit for completing an extended learning opportunity including, but not limited to, allowing a student to demonstrate competencies through performance-based assessments and other methods independent of instructional time and credit hours.

6. An entity approved by the state board of education to offer an extended learning opportunity shall be automatically qualified to offer that extended learning opportunity to all school districts and charter schools.

7. A student who successfully completes an approved extended learning opportunity and satisfies criteria for the award of a certification of completion and credit under subdivision (5) of subsection 5 of this section shall be considered to have completed all required coursework for the particular course. In an extended learning opportunity that satisfies all required coursework for a high school course, the student shall also be considered to have satisfied the equivalent number of credits toward the student's graduation requirements.

8. Any policy or procedure adopted by the state board of education, a school board, or a charter school for participating in an extended learning opportunity shall provide every student an equal opportunity to participate and shall satisfy established timelines and requirements for purposes of transcribing credits and state reporting.

9. The state board of education may promulgate rules to implement the provisions of this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter are nonseverable, and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2022, shall be invalid and void."; and

"168.036. 1. In addition to granting certificates of license to teach in public schools of the state under section 168.021, the state board of education shall grant substitute teacher certificates as provided in this section to any individual seeking to substitute teach in any public school in this state.

2. (1) The state board shall not grant a certificate of license to teach under this section to any individual who has not completed a background check as required under section 168.021.

(2) The state board may refuse to issue or renew, suspend, or revoke any certificate sought or issued under this section in the same manner and for the same reasons as under section 168.071.

3. The state board may grant a certificate under this section to any individual who has completed:

(1) At least thirty-six semester hours at an accredited institution of higher education; or

(2) The twenty-hour online training program required in this section and who possesses a high school diploma or the equivalent thereof.

4. The department of elementary and secondary education shall develop and maintain an online training program for individuals, which shall consist of twenty hours of training related to subjects appropriate for substitute teachers as determined by the department.

5. The state board may grant a certificate under this section to any highly qualified individual with expertise in a technical or business field or with experience in the Armed Forces of the United States who has completed the background check required in this section but does not meet any of the qualifications under subdivision (1) or (2) of subsection 3 of this section if the superintendent of the school district in which the individual seeks to substitute teach sponsors such individual and the school board of the school district in which the individual seeks to substitute teach votes to approve such individual to substitute teach.

6. (1) Notwithstanding any other provisions to contrary, beginning on the effective date of this section and ending on June 30, 2025, any person, who is retired and currently receiving a retirement allowance under sections 169.010 to 169.141 or sections 169.600 to 169.715, other than for disability, may be employed to substitute teach on a part time or temporary substitute basis by an employer included in the retirement system without a discontinuance of the person's retirement allowance. Such a person shall not contribute to the retirement system, or to the public school retirement system established by sections 169.010 to 169.141 or to the public education employee retirement system established by sections 169.600 to 169.715, because of earnings during such period of employment.

(2) In addition to the conditions set forth in subdivision 1 of this subsection, any person retired and currently receiving a retirement allowance under sections 169.010 to 169.141, other than for disability, who is employed by a third party or is performing work as an independent contractor may be employed to substitute teach on a part-time or temporary substitute basis, if such person is performing work for an employer included in the retirement system without a discontinuance of the person's retirement allowance.

(3) If a person is employed pursuant to this subsection on a regular, full-time basis the person shall not be entitled to receive the person's retirement allowance for any month during which the person is so employed. The retirement system may require the employer, the third-party employer, the independent contractor, and the retiree subject to this subsection to provide documentation showing compliance with this subsection. If such documentation is not provided, the retirement system may deem the retiree to have exceeded the limitations provided in this subsection.

7. A certificate granted under this section shall be valid for four years. A certificate granted under this section shall expire at the end of any calendar year in which the individual fails to substitute teach for at least five days or forty hours of in-seat instruction.

9. Each school district may develop an orientation for individuals to whom the state board grants a certificate under this section for such individuals employed by the school district and may require such individuals to complete such orientation. Such orientation shall contain at least two hours of subjects appropriate for substitute teachers and shall contain instruction on the school district's best practices for classroom management.

10. Beginning January 1, 2023, any substitute teacher may, at the time such substitute teacher submits the fingerprints and information required for the background check required under section 168.021, designate up to five school districts to which such substitute teacher has submitted an application for substitute teaching to receive the results of the substitute teacher's criminal history background check and fingerprint collection. The total amount of any fees for disseminating such results to up to five school districts under this subsection shall not exceed fifty dollars.

11. The state board may exercise the board's authority under chapter 161 to promulgate all necessary rules and regulations necessary for the administration of this section.

168.037. 1. The department of elementary and secondary education shall create and maintain a web-based survey for collecting anonymous information from substitute teachers in Missouri public schools. The survey will collect anonymous, nonbiased, real-time data that school districts, charter schools, and the state can access to study and improve the effectiveness of substitute teachers in supporting instruction and learning and to improve circumstances that may cause a shortage of available substitute teachers.

2. (1) Each substitute teacher in a public school shall complete the survey described in subsection 1 of this section at the end of each day of teaching. The district or charter school in which the substitute teacher is teaching for that day shall provide, by email, a web link to the survey. If needed, the district or charter school shall also provide brief access to a computer or other connected device sufficient to allow the survey to be completed. The survey can also be completed on-site by the substitute teacher using a personal device.

(2) The survey described in subsection 1 of this section shall include at a minimum, questions regarding: the age and level of education of the substitute teacher, the date of teaching, the district and school, the grade or grades taught, information about support and interaction with school staff, any student health or safety issues experienced, and rate of substitute teacher pay.

Section B. Because immediate action is necessary to provide for the safety and education of school children and increase the number of substitute teachers, the enactment of section 168.036 of this act is deemed necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, welfare, peace, and safety, and is hereby declared to be an emergency act within the meaning of the constitution, and the enactment of section 168.036 of this act shall be in full force and effect upon its passage and approval."; and

(4) (a) After a final plan is adopted as provided in subdivision (3) of this subsection, before December first of the calendar year immediately preceding the general municipal election day in the calendar year in which the residents of the school district will vote to elect new school board members as provided in the final plan, the school board shall divide the school district into seven subdistricts or a combination of subdistricts and at-large districts as directed in the final plan. All subdistricts required by the final plan shall be of contiguous and compact territory and as nearly equal in population as practicable in accordance with the final plan. Within six months after each decennial census is reported to the President of the United States, the school board shall reapportion the subdistricts to be as nearly equal in population as practicable. No school district shall require a candidate to submit a petition signed by the registered voters of the school district as a method of filing a declaration of candidacy. The election authority shall determine the validity of all declarations of candidacy.

(6) When the election is held on the general municipal election day, the seven candidates, one from each of the subdistricts or at-large districts, who receive a plurality of the votes cast by the voters of that subdistrict or at-large district shall be elected. Any candidate who is not a subdistrict resident but qualifies as a candidate as a school district resident as provided in subdivision (5) of this subsection shall be elected by the voters of the school district. Each member shall be elected to a term as provided in the final plan adopted as provided in subdivision (3) of this subsection.

(7) Each member shall serve until a successor is elected or the member vacates the office. Any vacancy that occurs before the end of the member's term shall be filled as provided in section 162.261 or 162.471.

Upon receiving such notification, the election authority shall submit the question of whether to divide the school district as provided by the petition to the voters of the school district on the next available day for any municipal election. If a majority of the registered voters of the school district voting on the question approve the division of the school district, the school board shall begin the process of adopting the plan as described in this subsection. If a majority of the registered voters of the school district voting on the question reject the division of the school district, no division as described in the petition shall occur.

(2) (a) Any such petition submitted to the school district as provided in this subsection shall contain a proposed plan for the division of the school district. Such proposed plan shall contain at least the following information:

- a. A summary of the proposed plan for dividing the school district;
- b. A statement indicating whether the school district will be divided into seven subdistricts or a combination of subdistricts and at-large districts;
- c. A description of the areas of the school district each newly elected school board member will represent, with each subdistrict and at-large district represented by a number;
- d. The proposed date of the election of each new school board member as provided in the proposed plan;
- e. A statement indicating whether the existing school board members will be replaced by the newly elected school board members at one election or in succeeding elections to provide for staggered terms of the members; and
- f. Any other information deemed necessary by the school board.

(b) If a division of the school district is approved by the voters as provided in subdivision (1) of this subsection, the school board shall create a school district division commission to develop a final plan for division of the school district. The commission shall:

- a. Be composed of nine members as follows:
 - (i) Three members appointed by the superintendent of the school district;
 - (ii) Three members appointed by the county commission; and
 - (iii) Three members appointed by the organizers of the petition to divide the school district; and
- b. Set the time and place of at least two hearings to be held to consider the proposed plan. For each hearing held, the commission shall:
 - (i) Publish notice of the hearing, the proposed plan, and any amendments to the proposed plan adopted at a previous hearing on the school district's website and by any other method allowed by law, with the first publication to occur no more than thirty days before the hearing and the second publication to occur no earlier than fifteen days and no later than ten days before the hearing;
 - (ii) Conduct the hearing on the proposal for division of the district on behalf of the petitioners;
 - (iii) Hear all protests and receive evidence for or against such proposed division; and
 - (iv) Vote to adopt any proposed plan amendments agreed to by the petitioners as a result of the hearings.

(c) Within ninety days after the adjournment of the final hearing conducted as provided in this subdivision, the commission shall submit the final plan to the election authority of the county in which the school district is located for actions required in subdivision (3) of this subsection and publish the final plan in the same manner as the initial proposed plan was published as provided in item (i) of subparagraph b. of paragraph (b) of this subdivision. The final plan shall contain at least the following information:

- b. A statement indicating whether the school district will be divided into seven subdistricts or a combination of subdistricts and at-large districts;

- e. A statement indicating whether the existing school board members will be replaced by the newly elected school board members at one election or in succeeding elections to provide for staggered terms of the members; and
- f. Any other information deemed necessary by the commission.

(3) (a) After a final plan is submitted to the election authority as provided in subdivision (2) of this subsection, before December first of the calendar year immediately preceding the general municipal election day in the calendar year in which the residents of the school district will vote to elect new school board members as provided in the final plan, the school district division commission shall divide the school district into seven subdistricts or a combination of subdistricts and at-large districts as directed in the final plan. All subdistricts required by the final plan shall be of contiguous and compact territory and as nearly equal in population as practicable in accordance with the final plan. Within six months after each decennial census is reported to the President of the United States, the commission shall reapportion the subdistricts to be as nearly equal in population as practicable. After the commission divides the school district or reapportions the subdistricts, the commission shall notify the residents of the school district as provided by law.

(b) Any resident of the school district who believes the school district division commission has divided the school district or reapportioned subdistricts in violation of paragraph (a) of this subdivision may petition the circuit court of the county in which the school district exists for an order directing the commission to divide the school district or reapportion the subdistricts as provided in paragraph (a) of this subdivision. The petition shall be submitted to the circuit court within ten business days of the commission's notice provided in paragraph (a) of this subdivision.

(4) On the first day available for candidate filing for the first general municipal election occurring after the school district is divided as provided in this subsection, any qualified resident who has or will have resided in a subdistrict or at-large district for the year immediately preceding the general municipal election day may file as a candidate for election to the school board as a member representing such subdistrict or at-large district. At the end of the time available for candidate filing, if no qualified resident of a subdistrict has filed as a candidate in that subdistrict, the election authority shall extend the time for candidate filing by seven additional days, and any qualified resident of the school district who has or will have resided in the school district for the year immediately preceding the general municipal election day may file as a candidate for election to the school board as a member representing that subdistrict. No school district shall require a candidate to submit a petition signed by the registered voters of the school district as a method of filing a declaration of candidacy. The election authority shall determine the validity of all declarations of candidacy.

(5) When the election is held on the general municipal election day, the seven candidates, one from each of the subdistricts or at-large districts, who receive a plurality of the votes cast by the voters of that subdistrict shall be elected. Any candidate who is not a subdistrict resident but qualifies as a candidate as a school district resident as provided in subdivision (4) of this subsection shall be elected by the voters of the school district. Each member shall be elected to a term as provided in the final plan approved as provided in subdivision (2) of this subsection.

(6) Each member shall serve until a successor is elected or the member vacates the office. Any vacancy that occurs before the end of the member's term shall be filled as provided in section 162.261 or 162.471.

(7) Except for a member who is not a subdistrict resident but is elected as a school district resident to represent a subdistrict as provided in subdivision (4) of this subsection, each member shall reside in the subdistrict the member represents during the member's term.

(8) All other provisions applicable to school districts that are not in conflict with this subsection shall apply to school districts divided as provided in this subsection.

6. No new plan for division of the school district shall be proposed or adopted as provided in this section sooner than five years after a division of the school district as provided in this section."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Veit, House Amendment No. 6 was adopted.

Representative Kelly (141) offered House Amendment No. 7.

House Amendment No. 7

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1750, Page 1, Section A, Line 2, by inserting after all of the said section and line the following:

"160.261. 1. The local board of education of each school district shall clearly establish a written policy of discipline, including the district's determination on the use of corporal punishment and the procedures in which punishment will be applied. A written copy of the district's discipline policy and corporal punishment procedures, if applicable, shall be provided to the pupil and parent or legal guardian of every pupil enrolled in the district at the beginning of each school year and also made available in the office of the superintendent of such district, during normal business hours, for public inspection. All employees of the district shall annually receive instruction related to the specific contents of the policy of discipline and any interpretations necessary to implement the provisions of the policy in the course of their duties, including but not limited to approved methods of dealing with acts of school violence, disciplining students with disabilities and instruction in the necessity and requirements for confidentiality.

2. The policy shall require school administrators to report acts of school violence to all teachers at the attendance center and, in addition, to other school district employees with a need to know. For the purposes of this chapter or chapter 167, "need to know" is defined as school personnel who are directly responsible for the student's education or who otherwise interact with the student on a professional basis while acting within the scope of their assigned duties. As used in this section, the phrase "act of school violence" or "violent behavior" means the exertion of physical force by a student with the intent to do serious physical injury as defined in section 556.061 to another person while on school property, including a school bus in service on behalf of the district, or while involved in school activities. The policy shall at a minimum require school administrators to report, as soon as reasonably practical, to the appropriate law enforcement agency any of the following crimes, or any act which if committed by an adult would be one of the following crimes:

- (1) First degree murder under section 565.020;
- (2) Second degree murder under section 565.021;
- (3) Kidnapping under section 565.110 as it existed prior to January 1, 2017, or kidnapping in the first degree under section 565.110;

- (9) Robbery in the first degree under section 569.020 as it existed prior to January 1, 2017, or robbery in the first degree under section 570.023;
- (10) Distribution of drugs under section 195.211 as it existed prior to January 1, 2017, or manufacture of a controlled substance under section 579.055;
- (11) Distribution of drugs to a minor under section 195.212 as it existed prior to January 1, 2017, or delivery of a controlled substance under section 579.020;
- (12) Arson in the first degree under section 569.040;
- (13) Voluntary manslaughter under section 565.023;
- (14) Involuntary manslaughter under section 565.024 as it existed prior to January 1, 2017, involuntary manslaughter in the first degree under section 565.024, or involuntary manslaughter in the second degree under section 565.027;
- (15) Second degree assault under section 565.060 as it existed prior to January 1, 2017, or second degree assault under section 565.052;
- (16) Rape in the second degree under section 566.031;
- (17) Felonious restraint under section 565.120 as it existed prior to January 1, 2017, or kidnapping in the second degree under section 565.120;
- (18) Property damage in the first degree under section 569.100;
- (19) The possession of a weapon under chapter 571;
- (20) Child molestation in the first degree pursuant to section 566.067 as it existed prior to January 1, 2017, or child molestation in the first, second, or third degree pursuant to section 566.067, 566.068, or 566.069;

- (21) Sodomy in the second degree pursuant to section 566.061;
- (22) Sexual misconduct involving a child pursuant to section 566.083;
- (23) Sexual abuse in the first degree pursuant to section 566.100;
- (24) Harassment under section 565.090 as it existed prior to January 1, 2017, or harassment in the first degree under section 565.090; or

(25) Stalking under section 565.225 as it existed prior to January 1, 2017, or stalking in the first degree under section 565.225; committed on school property, including but not limited to actions on any school bus in service on behalf of the district or while involved in school activities. The policy shall require that any portion of a student's individualized education program that is related to demonstrated or potentially violent behavior shall be provided to any teacher and other school district employees who are directly responsible for the student's education or who otherwise interact with the student on an educational basis while acting within the scope of their assigned duties. The policy shall also contain the consequences of failure to obey standards of conduct set by the local board of education, and the importance of the standards to the maintenance of an atmosphere where orderly learning is possible and encouraged.

3. The policy shall provide that any student who is on suspension for any of the offenses listed in subsection 2 of this section or any act of violence or drug-related activity defined by school district policy as a serious violation of school discipline pursuant to subsection 9 of this section shall have as a condition of his or her suspension the requirement that such student is not allowed, while on such suspension, to be within one thousand feet of any school property in the school district where such student attended school or any activity of that district, regardless of whether or not the activity takes place on district property unless:

- (1) Such student is under the direct supervision of the student's parent, legal guardian, or custodian and the superintendent or the superintendent's designee has authorized the student to be on school property;
- (2) Such student is under the direct supervision of another adult designated by the student's parent, legal guardian, or custodian, in advance, in writing, to the principal of the school which suspended the student and the superintendent or the superintendent's designee has authorized the student to be on school property;
- (3) Such student is enrolled in and attending an alternative school that is located within one thousand feet of a public school in the school district where such student attended school; or
- (4) Such student resides within one thousand feet of any public school in the school district where such student attended school in which case such student may be on the property of his or her residence without direct adult supervision.

4. Any student who violates the condition of suspension required pursuant to subsection 3 of this section may be subject to expulsion or further suspension pursuant to the provisions of sections 167.161, 167.164, and 167.171. In making this determination consideration shall be given to whether the student poses a threat to the safety of any child or school employee and whether such student's unsupervised presence within one thousand feet of the school is disruptive to the educational process or undermines the effectiveness of the school's disciplinary policy. Removal of any pupil who is a student with a disability is subject to state and federal procedural rights. This section shall not limit a school district's ability to:

- (1) Prohibit all students who are suspended from being on school property or attending an activity while on suspension;
- (2) Discipline students for off-campus conduct that negatively affects the educational environment to the extent allowed by law.

5. The policy shall provide for a suspension for a period of not less than one year, or expulsion, for a student who is determined to have brought a weapon to school, including but not limited to the school playground or the school parking lot, brought a weapon on a school bus or brought a weapon to a school activity whether on or off of the school property in violation of district policy, except that:

- (1) The superintendent or, in a school district with no high school, the principal of the school which such child attends may modify such suspension on a case-by-case basis; and
- (2) This section shall not prevent the school district from providing educational services in an alternative setting to a student suspended under the provisions of this section.

6. For the purpose of this section, the term "weapon" shall mean a firearm as defined under 18 U.S.C. Section 921 and the following items, as defined in section 571.010: a blackjack, a concealable firearm, an explosive weapon, a firearm, a firearm silencer, a gas gun, a knife, knuckles, a machine gun, a projectile weapon, a rifle, a shotgun, a spring gun or a switchblade knife; except that this section shall not be construed to prohibit a school board from adopting a policy to allow a Civil War reenactor to carry a Civil War era weapon on school property for educational purposes so long as the firearm is unloaded. The local board of education shall define weapon in the discipline policy. Such definition shall include the weapons defined in this subsection but may also include other weapons.

7. All school district personnel responsible for the care and supervision of students are authorized to hold every pupil strictly accountable for any disorderly conduct in school or on any property of the school, on any school bus going to or returning from school, during school-sponsored activities, or during intermission or recess periods.

8. Teachers and other authorized district personnel in public schools responsible for the care, supervision, and discipline of schoolchildren, including volunteers selected with reasonable care by the school district, shall not be civilly liable when acting in conformity with the established policies developed by each board, including but not limited to policies of student discipline or when reporting to his or her supervisor or other person as mandated by state law acts of school violence or threatened acts of school violence, within the course and scope of the duties of the teacher, authorized district personnel or volunteer, when such individual is acting in conformity with the established policies developed by the board. Nothing in this section shall be construed to create a new cause of action against such school district, or to relieve the school district from liability for the negligent acts of such persons.

9. Each school board shall define in its discipline policy acts of violence and any other acts that constitute a serious violation of that policy. "Acts of violence" as defined by school boards shall include but not be limited to exertion of physical force by a student with the intent to do serious bodily harm to another person while on school property, including a school bus in service on behalf of the district, or while involved in school activities. School districts shall for each student enrolled in the school district compile and maintain records of any serious violation of the district's discipline policy. Such records shall be made available to teachers and other school district employees with a need to know while acting within the scope of their assigned duties, and shall be provided as required in section 167.020 to any school district in which the student subsequently attempts to enroll.

10. Spanking, when administered by certificated personnel and in the presence of a witness who is an employee of the school district, or the use of reasonable force to protect persons or property, when administered by personnel of a school district in a reasonable manner in accordance with the local board of education's written policy of discipline, is not abuse within the meaning of chapter 210. ~~[The provisions of sections 210.110 to 210.165 notwithstanding, the children's division shall not have jurisdiction over or investigate any report of alleged child abuse arising out of or related to the use of reasonable force to protect persons or property when administered by personnel of a school district or any spanking administered in a reasonable manner by any certificated school personnel in the presence of a witness who is an employee of the school district pursuant to a written policy of discipline established by the board of education of the school district, as long as no allegation of sexual misconduct arises from the spanking or use of force.]~~

~~11. If a student reports alleged sexual misconduct on the part of a teacher or other school employee to a person employed in a school facility who is required to report such misconduct to the children's division under section 210.115, such person and the superintendent of the school district shall report the allegation to the children's division as set forth in section 210.115. Reports made to the children's division under this subsection shall be investigated by the division in accordance with the provisions of sections 210.145 to 210.153 and shall not be investigated by the school district under subsections 12 to 20 of this section for purposes of determining whether the allegations should or should not be substantiated. The district may investigate the allegations for the purpose of making any decision regarding the employment of the accused employee.~~

~~12.]~~ 11. Upon receipt of any reports of child abuse by the children's division ~~[other than reports provided under subsection 11 of this section,]~~ pursuant to sections 210.110 to 210.165 which allegedly involve personnel of a school district, the children's division shall notify the superintendent of schools of the district or, if the person named in the alleged incident is the superintendent of schools, the president of the school board of the school district where the alleged incident occurred.

~~[13. If, after an initial investigation, the superintendent of schools or the president of the school board finds that the report involves an alleged incident of child abuse other than the administration of a spanking by certificated school personnel or the use of reasonable force to protect persons or property when administered by school personnel pursuant to a written policy of discipline or that the report was made for the sole purpose of harassing a public school employee, the superintendent of schools or the president of the school board shall immediately refer the matter back to the children's division and take no further action. In all matters referred back to the children's division, the division shall treat the report in the same manner as other reports of alleged child abuse received by the division.]~~

14. If the report pertains to an alleged incident which arose out of or is related to a spanking administered by certificated personnel or the use of reasonable force to protect persons or property when administered by personnel of a school district pursuant to a written policy of discipline or a report made for the sole purpose of harassing a public school employee, a notification of the reported child abuse shall be sent by the superintendent of schools or the president of the school board to the law enforcement in the county in which the alleged incident occurred.

15. The report shall be jointly investigated by the law enforcement officer and the superintendent of schools or, if the subject of the report is the superintendent of schools, by a law enforcement officer and the president of the school board or such president's designee.

16. The investigation shall begin no later than forty-eight hours after notification from the children's division is received, and shall consist of, but need not be limited to, interviewing and recording statements of the child and the child's parents or guardian within two working days after the start of the investigation, of the school district personnel allegedly involved in the report, and of any witnesses to the alleged incident.

17. The law enforcement officer and the investigating school district personnel shall issue separate reports of their findings and recommendations after the conclusion of the investigation to the school board of the school district within seven days after receiving notice from the children's division.

18. The reports shall contain a statement of conclusion as to whether the report of alleged child abuse is substantiated or is unsubstantiated.

19. The school board shall consider the separate reports referred to in subsection 17 of this section and shall issue its findings and conclusions and the action to be taken, if any, within seven days after receiving the last of the two reports. The findings and conclusions shall be made in substantially the following form:

(1) The report of the alleged child abuse is unsubstantiated. The law enforcement officer and the investigating school board personnel agree that there was not a preponderance of evidence to substantiate that abuse occurred;

(2) The report of the alleged child abuse is substantiated. The law enforcement officer and the investigating school district personnel agree that the preponderance of evidence is sufficient to support a finding that the alleged incident of child abuse did occur;

(3) The issue involved in the alleged incident of child abuse is unresolved. The law enforcement officer and the investigating school personnel are unable to agree on their findings and conclusions on the alleged incident.

20. The findings and conclusions of the school board under subsection 19 of this section shall be sent to the children's division. If the findings and conclusions of the school board are that the report of the alleged child abuse is unsubstantiated, the investigation shall be terminated, the case closed, and no record shall be entered in the children's division central registry. If the findings and conclusions of the school board are that the report of the alleged child abuse is substantiated, the children's division shall report the incident to the prosecuting attorney of the appropriate county along with the findings and conclusions of the school district and shall include the information in the division's central registry. If the findings and conclusions of the school board are that the issue involved in the alleged incident of child abuse is unresolved, the children's division shall report the incident to the prosecuting attorney of the appropriate county along with the findings and conclusions of the school board, however, the incident and the names of the parties allegedly involved shall not be entered into the central registry of the children's division unless and until the alleged child abuse is substantiated by a court of competent jurisdiction.

21. Any superintendent of schools, president of a school board or such person's designee or law enforcement officer who knowingly falsifies any report of any matter pursuant to this section or who knowingly withholds any information relative to any investigation or report pursuant to this section is guilty of a class A misdemeanor.

22.] 12. In order to ensure the safety of all students, should a student be expelled for bringing a weapon to school, violent behavior, or for an act of school violence, that student shall not, for the purposes of the accreditation process of the Missouri school improvement plan, be considered a dropout or be included in the calculation of that district's educational persistence ratio."; and

"162.974. 1. The state department of elementary and secondary education shall reimburse school districts, including special school districts, for the special educational costs of high-need children with an individualized education program exceeding three times the current expenditure per average daily attendance as calculated on the district annual secretary of the board report for the year in which expenditures are claimed. For any school district with an average daily attendance of five hundred students or fewer, the calculation of three times the current expenditure per average daily attendance shall not include any moneys reimbursed to a school district under this section.

2. A school district shall submit, through timely application, as determined by the state department of elementary and secondary education, the cost of serving any high-needs student with an individualized education program, as provided in subsection 1 of this section.

171.033. 1. "Inclement weather", for purposes of this section, shall be defined as ice, snow, extreme cold, excessive heat, flooding, or a tornado.

2. (1) A district shall be required to make up the first six days of school lost or cancelled due to inclement weather and half the number of days lost or cancelled in excess of six days if the makeup of the days is necessary to ensure that the district's students will attend a minimum of one hundred forty-two days and a minimum of one thousand forty-four hours for the school year except as otherwise provided in this section. Schools with a four-day school week may schedule such make-up days on Fridays.

(2) Notwithstanding subdivision (1) of this subsection, in school year 2019-20 and subsequent years, a district shall be required to make up the first thirty-six hours of school lost or cancelled due to inclement weather and half the number of hours lost or cancelled in excess of thirty-six if the makeup of the hours is necessary to ensure that the district's students attend a minimum of one thousand forty-four hours for the school year, except as otherwise provided under subsections 3 and 4 of this section.

3. (1) In the 2009-10 school year and subsequent years, a school district may be exempt from the requirement to make up days of school lost or cancelled due to inclement weather in the school district when the school district has made up the six days required under subsection 2 of this section and half the number of additional lost or cancelled days up to eight days, resulting in no more than ten total make-up days required by this section.

(2) In school year 2019-20 and subsequent years, a school district may be exempt from the requirement to make up school lost or cancelled due to inclement weather in the school district when the school district has made up the thirty-six hours required under subsection 2 of this section and half the number of additional lost or cancelled hours up to forty-eight, resulting in no more than sixty total make-up hours required by this section.

4. The commissioner of education may provide, for any school district that cannot meet the minimum school calendar requirement of at least one hundred seventy-four days for schools with a five-day school week or one hundred forty-two days for schools with a four-day school week and one thousand forty-four hours of actual pupil attendance or, in school year 2019-20 and subsequent years, one thousand forty-four hours of actual pupil attendance, upon request, a waiver to be excused from such requirement. This waiver shall be requested from the commissioner of education and may be granted if the school was closed due to circumstances beyond school district control, including inclement weather or fire.

Exceptional or emergency circumstances shall include, but not be limited to, inclement weather, a utility outage, or an outbreak of a contagious disease. The department of elementary and secondary education shall not approve any such plan unless the district demonstrates that the plan will not negatively impact teaching and learning in the district.

(2) If school is closed due to exceptional or emergency circumstances and the district has an approved alternative methods of instruction plan, the district shall notify students and parents on each day of the closure whether the alternative methods of instruction plan is to be implemented for that day. If the plan is to be implemented on any day of the closure, the district shall ensure that each student receives assignments for that day in hard copy form or receives instruction through virtual learning or another method of instruction.

(3) A district with an approved alternative methods of instruction plan shall not use alternative methods of instruction as provided for in the plan for more than thirty-six hours during a school year. A district that has used such alternative methods of instruction for thirty-six hours during a school year shall be required, notwithstanding subsections 2 and 3 of this section, to make up any subsequent hours of school lost or cancelled due to exceptional or emergency circumstances during such school year.

(4) The department of elementary and secondary education shall give districts with approved alternative methods of instruction plans credit for the hours in which they use alternative methods of instruction by considering such hours as hours in which school was actually in session.

(5) Any district wishing to use alternative methods of instruction under this subsection shall submit an application to the department of elementary and secondary education. The application shall describe:

(a) The manner in which the district intends to strengthen and reinforce instructional content while supporting student learning outside the classroom environment;

(b) The process the district intends to use to communicate to students and parents the decision to implement alternative methods of instruction on any day of a closure;

(b) The initial visiting scholars certificate shall certify the holder of such certificate to teach for one year. 2. All valid teaching certificates issued pursuant to law or state board policies and regulations prior to September 1, 1988, shall be exempt from the professional development requirements of this section and shall continue in effect until they expire, are revoked or suspended, as provided by law. When such certificates are required to be renewed, the state board or its designee shall grant to each holder of such a certificate the certificate most nearly equivalent to the one so held. Anyone who holds, as of August 28, 2003, a valid PC-I, PC-II, or continuous professional certificate shall, upon expiration of ~~this or her~~ such person's current certificate, be issued the appropriate level of certificate based upon the classification system established pursuant to subsection 3 of this section.

3. (1) Certificates of license to teach in the public schools of the state shall be based upon minimum requirements prescribed by the state board of education which shall include completion of a background check as prescribed in section 168.133. The state board shall provide for the following levels of professional certification: an initial professional certificate and a career continuous professional certificate.

(2) The initial professional certificate shall be issued upon completion of requirements established by the state board of education and shall be valid based upon verification of actual teaching within a specified time period established by the state board of education. The state board shall require holders of the four-year initial professional certificate to:

- (a) Participate in a mentoring program approved and provided by the district for a minimum of two years;
- (b) Complete thirty contact hours of professional development, which may include hours spent in class in an appropriate college curriculum, or for holders of a certificate under subdivision (4) of subsection 1 of this section, an amount of professional development in proportion to the certificate holder's hours in the classroom, if the certificate holder is employed less than full time; and
- (c) Participate in a beginning teacher assistance program.

(3) (a) The career continuous professional certificate shall be issued upon verification of completion of four years of teaching under the initial professional certificate and upon verification of the completion of the requirements articulated in paragraphs (a) ~~], (b), and~~ to (c) of subdivision (2) of this subsection or paragraphs (a) ~~], (b), (c), and~~ to (d) of subdivision (5) of subsection 1 of this section.

(b) The career continuous professional certificate shall be continuous based upon verification of actual employment in an educational position as provided for in state board guidelines and completion of fifteen contact hours of professional development per year which may include hours spent in class in an appropriate college curriculum. Should the possessor of a valid career continuous professional certificate fail, in any given year, to meet the fifteen-hour professional development requirement, the possessor may, within two years, make up the missing hours. In order to make up for missing hours, the possessor shall first complete the fifteen-hour requirement for the current year and then may count hours in excess of the current year requirement as make-up hours. Should the possessor fail to make up the missing hours within two years, the certificate shall become inactive. In order to reactivate the certificate, the possessor shall complete twenty-four contact hours of professional development which may include hours spent in the classroom in an appropriate college curriculum within the six months prior to or after reactivating ~~his or her~~ the possessor's certificate. The requirements of this paragraph shall be monitored and verified by the local school district which employs the holder of the career continuous professional certificate.

(c) A holder of a career continuous professional certificate shall be exempt from the professional development contact hour requirements of paragraph (b) of this subdivision if such teacher has a local professional development plan in place within such teacher's school district and meets two of the three following criteria:

- a. Has ten years of teaching experience as defined by the state board of education;
- b. Possesses a master's degree; or
- c. Obtains a rigorous national certification as approved by the state board of education.

4. Policies and procedures shall be established by which a teacher who was not retained due to a reduction in force may retain the current level of certification. There shall also be established policies and procedures allowing a teacher who has not been employed in an educational position for three years or more to reactivate ~~his or her~~ the teacher's last level of certification by completing twenty-four contact hours of professional development which may include hours spent in the classroom in an appropriate college curriculum within the six months prior to or after reactivating ~~his or her~~ the teacher's certificate.

5. The state board shall, upon completion of a background check as prescribed in section 168.133, issue a professional certificate classification in the areas most closely aligned with an applicant's current areas of certification, commensurate with the years of teaching experience of the applicant, to any person who is hired to teach in a public school in this state and who possesses a valid teaching certificate from another state or certification under subdivision (4) of subsection 1 of this section, provided that the certificate holder shall annually complete the state board's requirements for such level of certification, and shall establish policies by which residents of states other than the state of Missouri may be assessed a fee for a certificate of license to teach in the public schools of Missouri. Such fee shall be in an amount sufficient to recover any or all costs associated with the issuing of a certificate of license to teach. The board shall promulgate rules to authorize the issuance of a provisional certificate of license, which shall be valid for three years and shall allow the holder to assume classroom duties pending the completion of a criminal background check under section 168.133, for any applicant who:

- (1) Is the spouse of a member of the Armed Forces stationed in Missouri;
- (2) Relocated from another state within one year of the date of application;

(3) Underwent a criminal background check in order to be issued a teaching certificate of license from another state; and

(4) Otherwise qualifies under this section.

6. The state board may assess to holders of an initial professional certificate a fee, to be deposited into the excellence in education ~~[revolving]~~ fund established pursuant to section 160.268, for the issuance of the career continuous professional certificate. However, such fee shall not exceed the combined costs of issuance and any criminal background check required as a condition of issuance. Applicants for the initial ABCTE certificate shall be responsible for any fees associated with the program leading to the issuance of the certificate, but nothing in this section shall prohibit a district from developing a policy that permits fee reimbursement.

7. Any member of the public school retirement system of Missouri who entered covered employment with ten or more years of educational experience in another state or states and held a certificate issued by another state and subsequently worked in a school district covered by the public school retirement system of Missouri for ten or more years who later became certificated in Missouri shall have that certificate dated back to ~~[his or her]~~ the member's original date of employment in a Missouri public school.

8. Within thirty days of receiving an application from a spouse of an active duty member of the Armed Forces of the United States who has been transferred or is scheduled to be transferred to the state of Missouri, or who has been transferred or is scheduled to be transferred to an adjacent state and is or will be domiciled in the state of Missouri, or has moved to the state of Missouri on a permanent change-of-station basis and has successfully completed the background check described under subsection 5 of this section and section 168.133, the state board shall issue to such applicant a full certificate of license to teach, provided that the applicant has paid all necessary fees and has otherwise met all requirements to be issued such a certificate."; and

THIRTY-SIXTH DAY, THURSDAY, MARCH 10, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Brad Hudson.

Almighty God,

This is the day which You have made. We will rejoice and be glad in it. You teach us in Your Word that he who thinks he stands should take heed lest he fall. Please forgive us, for this political world we work in is so often fueled by ego, ambition, and self-interest. Place in our hearts a desire to do things differently. Help us to see that humility is a virtue and not a weakness, that we are most like You when we live for the good of others instead of living to promote ourselves. Of course this approach is much different from much of the attitude that seems to dominate our day, but isn't that what You've called us to be, Lord—different? Give us the faith to face the challenges ahead with confidence in Your strength and Your wisdom. Lift us up that we may soar for Your glory, and if we ever get to trying to fly too high in ourselves, please ever so gently clip our wings.

In Jesus' name I pray. And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Madison Russom.

The Journal of the thirty-fifth day was approved as printed.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

TWENTY-NINTH DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Josh Hurlbert.

With profound reverence for the supreme ruler of the universe, and grateful for His goodness, we are thankful for this day. Every breath is a blessing, every day an act of compassion from You.

You have brought each of us here and put us in a position to make decisions on behalf of the people of Missouri. Please remind us of that motto inscribed on this dais, "Salus populi suprema lex." May the welfare of the people be the supreme law. May we not allow our personal opinions or ambitions to overwhelm our duty and the positions You have endowed us with. Please, guide our hearts ever closer to Yours, that we may love mercy, act justly, and walk humbly before You and our fellow man.

Again, we thank You for this day and ask for Your guidance and blessing over these proceedings. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twenty-seventh day was approved as printed by the following vote:

3. (1) The department of elementary and secondary education shall establish academic requirements for students to obtain high school diplomas.

(2) Requirements for a high school diploma shall be based on an adult student's prior high school achievement and the remaining credits and coursework that would be necessary for the student to receive a high school diploma if ~~he or she~~ such student were in a traditional high school setting. The adult student shall meet the requirements with the same level of academic rigor as would otherwise be necessary to attain such credits.

(3) The adult high school authorized under this section shall award high school diplomas to students who successfully meet the established academic requirements. The plan shall include, but not be limited to:

- (1) Requirements for graduation from the school district or charter school;

"160.565. 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Extended Learning Opportunities Act".

2. As used in this section, the following terms mean:

(1) "Extended learning opportunity", an out-of-classroom learning experience that is approved by the state board of education, a school board, or a charter school and that provides a student with:

(a) Enrichment opportunities;

3. Beginning with the 2023-24 school year, the state board of education and each local school board shall routinely inform students and parents of the ability for students to earn credit for participating in extended learning opportunities. Employees of the state board of education and public schools may assist students and parents in completing enrollment processes required for participating in approved extended learning opportunities. No student or parent shall be required to obtain permission from the student's school district or charter school to enroll in an extended learning opportunity. Before participating in any extended learning opportunity, the student and at least one parent shall sign an agreement detailing all program requirements in a form developed by the state board of education.

4. An extended learning opportunity shall count as a credit toward graduation requirements and the achievement of applicable state standards for students. To receive credit, a student shall submit a written request for credit and proof of successful completion of the extended learning opportunity to a designated administrator of the school the student attends.

5. The state board of education shall adopt, and each local school district shall distribute and implement, extended learning opportunities policies that provide all of the following:

6. An entity approved by the state board of education to offer an extended learning opportunity shall be automatically qualified to offer that extended learning opportunity to all school districts and charter schools.

7. A student who successfully completes an approved extended learning opportunity and satisfies criteria for the award of a certification of completion and credit under subdivision (5) of subsection 5 of this section shall be considered to have completed all required coursework for the particular course. In an extended learning opportunity that satisfies all required coursework for a high school course, the student shall also be considered to have satisfied the equivalent number of credits toward the student's graduation requirements.

8. Any policy or procedure adopted by the state board of education, a school board, or a charter school for participating in an extended learning opportunity shall provide every student an equal opportunity to participate and shall satisfy established timelines and requirements for purposes of transcribing credits and state reporting.

9. The state board of education may promulgate rules to implement the provisions of this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter are nonseverable, and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2022, shall be invalid and void."; and

THIRTIETH DAY, TUESDAY, MARCH 1, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. (Psalm 121:1)

O Heavenly Creator, who is the source of truth and the giver of all good, lead us to the hills from where comes our help and where in steadiness of thought and stability of feeling we may be secure in mind and heart on this Mardi Gras.

In these moments of prayer help us receive Your powerful spirit that the life of this day may be different and this difference makes a difference in the day for us.

Strengthen our faith, increase our courage, and encourage our high endeavors that we may never lose heart in the struggle for good government and the right of people to determine their own destiny by ballot.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Gauge Fitzgerald, Oakley Fitzgerald, Paislee Fitzgerald, Kendra Fitzgerald, Maverick Fitzgerald, Cash Boggs, and Hazel Fitzwater.

The Journal of the twenty-ninth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

The sheriff may require that the applicant display a Missouri driver's license or nondriver's license or military identification and orders showing the person being stationed in Missouri. In order to determine the applicant's suitability for a concealed carry permit, the applicant shall be fingerprinted. No other biometric data shall be collected from the applicant. The sheriff shall conduct an inquiry of the National Instant Criminal Background Check System within three working days after submission of the properly completed application for a concealed carry permit. If no disqualifying record is identified by these checks at the state level, the fingerprints shall be forwarded to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for a national criminal history record check. 6. The sheriff may refuse to approve an application for a concealed carry permit if he or she determines that any of the requirements specified in subsection 2 of this section have not been met, or if he or she has a substantial and demonstrable reason to believe that the applicant has rendered a false statement regarding any of the provisions of sections 571.101 to 571.121. Upon receiving any additional documentation, the sheriff shall reconsider his or her decision and inform the applicant within thirty days of the result of the reconsideration. The applicant shall further be informed in writing of the right to appeal the denial pursuant to subsections 2, 3, 4, and 5 of section 571.114. After two additional reviews and denials by the sheriff, the person submitting the application shall appeal the denial pursuant to subsections 2, 3, 4, and 5 of section 571.114.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

THIRTY-FIRST DAY, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 2, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Wiemann in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Ed Lewis.

Creator God,

As we assemble in the People's House of Missouri, we are reminded that Isaiah called Jesus the Prince of Peace. Father, we ask that You continue to be the Prince of Peace. Lord, we ask that You grant peace here in Missouri and around the world. We pray that the conflict in Europe would have a swift conclusion, not because of the subjugation of a people by a tyrant but by the withdrawal of invading troops and a return of freedom for the Ukrainian people. We pray for the innocent families and bystanders that are endangered. We ask that You strengthen the resolve and the faith of the Ukrainian people and their leaders.

Lord, it is not just for others that we pray for peace, but for ourselves. Lord, we pray as St. Francis prayed: "Make me an instrument of your peace." Where there is hatred, let me bring love. Where there is offense, let me bring pardon. Where there is discord, let me bring union. Where there is falsehood, let me bring the truth. Where there is doubt, let me bring faith. Where there is despair, let me bring hope. Where there is darkness, let me bring Your light.

Lord, we pray that we show Your truth, hope, light and peace to those around us. We pray for Your peace here in the state of Missouri, in the United States, and around the world.

We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace, and all the people of the House said, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Elizabeth Stewart, Lusia Twavowslu, Romy Sailer, Tanja Weihing, Tabea Felanaus, Analina Pitel, Marta Guillen, Lena Hübuer, Nina Berthelot, Amalie Hangelsen, Jihu Kang, Letizia Tao, Merel Van de Laar, Paul Muench, Mansha Verma, and Karin Cibul'ová.

The Journal of the thirtieth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 101st GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-SECOND DAY, THURSDAY, MARCH 3, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Wiemann in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Patricia Pike.

Lord,

Thank You for the opportunity to serve. We thank You for our nation, our state, and the institutions of our government. We thank You for those who support us in our legislative work around our districts and at the capitol.

We thank You for our families and for the communities that we represent. We thank You for all those in uniform who devote themselves to the protection of others. We are so grateful to be living in a democracy where many play a part in making sure that the interests of our citizens are heard and met.

Lord, we know that You have given us a special responsibility. As leaders, please guide us as we work together to find solutions to challenging issues and to help us support each other in the process.

For all these things we pray. And the House said "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Kennedy Choinka.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

TWENTY-FIFTH DAY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 2022

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

The Lord is gracious and full of compassion; slow to anger and of great mercy. (Psalm 145:8)

O Lord, our Heavenly Creator, by whose mercy we have come to the conclusion of another day, grant that we may end it with humble and contrite hearts. Confirm our purpose to walk more sincerely in Your way and to work more surely in Your service.

Let not the mistakes of the past master us but forgive and set us free. Lead us into a closer companionship with You that we may continue to walk in the ways of honesty, truth, and good will. Give us the confidence that strengthens, the faith that gives courage, and the integrity of mind that holds us steady amid the pressures of our times.

Lay Your hand in blessing upon each one of us. Make us worthy of this day, adequate for our tasks, and ready to lead our State into the paths of peace.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twenty-fourth day was approved as printed.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 101st GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-SIXTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Now the God of peace be with you all. (Romans 15:33)

Most Merciful and Gracious God, beyond whose love and care we cannot drift, in the glory of a new day we come lifting our hearts to You as we prepare ourselves for the duties before us. We would be still in Your presence and receive from Your heart strength for the day, wisdom of these hours, and faith for every moment to carry us through with high honor and creative courage.

Amid the opportunities of these winter days may we hear Your voice calling us to be faithful and true, strong and steady, and hearing, may we respond with all our hearts.

We pray for our nation, going separate ways to different ends. May we not increase division by our discussions in this chamber, but may we seek to enlarge the circle of intelligent debate whereby the people of our cities and villages can learn the fine art of living together in peace and humility.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Angelia Adonte Brown and Lisa Lewis.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

TWENTY-SECOND DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Hardy Billington.

Thank You, God, for letting me be born in this great country, where anyone can worship any way they choose!
Thank You, God, for loving us and we love You but You first loved us before the foundation of the world! You died on the cross so our sins can be forgiven, so we can have the gift of eternal life!

Today is about love: Husbands, love your wife, even as Christ also loved the church and gave Himself for it. You say in the Bible whoever finds a good wife finds a good thing. "Who can find a virtuous woman? For her price is far above rubies." And thank You, God, for my ruby, my wife Dianne Billington.

God, thank You for the opportunity to serve the people in my district and the great State of Missouri and for all the friends I have here in this great capitol. In God's word, He said if anyone lacks wisdom, "let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him." I truly need wisdom, God, to make some hard decisions every day for the people of Missouri. Please grant me Your wisdom. And at any point should we disagree with our fellow representatives, may we treat each other with kindness and respect.

May we do all things to glorify Thy name! May God bless the people of Missouri and our great country!

We pray in Jesus' name, and the House said, "Amen."

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twenty-first day was approved as printed by the following vote:

"Further amend said bill, Page 2, Section 292.648, Line 23, by inserting after said section and line the following:

"452.400. 1. (1) A parent not granted custody of the child is entitled to reasonable visitation rights unless the court finds, after a hearing, that visitation would endanger the child's physical health or impair his or her emotional development. The court shall enter an order specifically detailing the visitation rights of the parent without physical custody rights to the child and any other children for whom such parent has custodial or visitation rights. In determining the granting of visitation rights, the court shall consider evidence of domestic violence. If the court finds that domestic violence has occurred, the court may find that granting visitation to the abusive party is in the best interests of the child.

(2) (a) The court shall not grant visitation to the parent not granted custody if such parent or any person residing with such parent has been found guilty of or pled guilty to any of the following offenses when a child was the victim:

- a. A felony violation of section 566.030, 566.032, 566.031, 566.060, 566.062, 566.064, 566.067, 566.068, 566.061, 566.083, 566.101, 566.100, 566.111, 566.151, 566.203, 566.206, 566.209, 566.211, or 566.215;
- b. A violation of section 568.020;
- c. A violation of subdivision (2) of subsection 1 of section 568.060;
- d. A violation of section 568.065;
- e. A violation of section 573.200;
- f. A violation of section 573.205; or
- g. A violation of section 568.175.

(b) For all other violations of offenses in chapters 566 and 568 not specifically listed in paragraph (a) of this subdivision or for a violation of an offense committed in another state when a child is the victim that would be a violation of chapter 566 or 568 if committed in Missouri, the court may exercise its discretion in granting visitation to a parent not granted custody if such parent or any person residing with such parent has been found guilty of, or pled guilty to, any such offense.

(3) The court shall consider the parent's history of inflicting, or tendency to inflict, physical harm, bodily injury, assault, or the fear of physical harm, bodily injury, or assault on other persons and shall grant visitation in a manner that best protects the child and the parent or other family or household member who is the victim of domestic violence, and any other children for whom the parent has custodial or visitation rights from any further harm.

(4) The court, if requested by a party, shall make specific findings of fact to show that the visitation arrangements made by the court best protect the child or the parent or other family or household member who is the victim of domestic violence, or any other child for whom the parent has custodial or visitation rights from any further harm.

(5) The court shall not deny or limit visitation to the parent not granted custody because of the parent's COVID-19 vaccination status; except that, a judge shall have discretion to deny or limit visitation if the child has a medical condition that places him or her at higher risk of severe illness from COVID-19.

2. (1) The court may modify an order granting or denying visitation rights whenever modification would serve the best interests of the child, but the court shall not restrict a parent's visitation rights unless it finds that the visitation would endanger the child's physical health or impair his or her emotional development.

(2) (a) In any proceeding modifying visitation rights, the court shall not grant unsupervised visitation to a parent if the parent or any person residing with such parent has been found guilty of or pled guilty to any of the following offenses when a child was the victim:

- a. A felony violation of section 566.030, 566.032, 566.031, 566.060, 566.062, 566.064, 566.067, 566.068, 566.061, 566.083, 566.101, 566.100, 566.111, 566.151, 566.203, 566.206, 566.209, 566.211, or 566.215;
- b. A violation of section 568.020;
- c. A violation of subdivision (2) of subsection 1 of section 568.060;
- d. A violation of section 568.065;
- e. A violation of section 573.200;
- f. A violation of section 573.205; or
- g. A violation of section 568.175.

(b) For all other violations of offenses in chapters 566 and 568 not specifically listed in paragraph (a) of this subdivision or for a violation of an offense committed in another state when a child is the victim that would be a violation of chapter 566 or 568 if committed in Missouri, the division may exercise its discretion regarding the placement of a child taken into the custody of the state in which a parent or any person residing in the home has been found guilty of, or pled guilty to, any such offense.

(3) When a court restricts a parent's visitation rights or when a court orders supervised visitation because of allegations of abuse or domestic violence, a showing of proof of treatment and rehabilitation shall be made to the court before unsupervised visitation may be ordered.

"Supervised visitation", as used in this section, is visitation which takes place in the presence of a responsible adult appointed by the court for the protection of the child.

3. The court shall mandate compliance with its order by all parties to the action, including parents, children and third parties. In the event of noncompliance, the aggrieved person may file a verified motion for contempt. If custody, visitation or third-party custody is denied or interfered with by a parent or third party without good cause, the aggrieved person may file a family access motion with the court stating the specific facts which constitute a violation of the judgment of dissolution, legal separation or judgment of paternity. The state courts administrator shall develop a simple form for pro se motions to the aggrieved person, which shall be provided to the person by the circuit clerk. Clerks, under the supervision of a circuit clerk, shall explain to aggrieved parties the procedures for filing the form. Notice of the fact that clerks will provide such assistance shall be conspicuously posted in the clerk's offices. The location of the office where the family access motion may be filed shall be conspicuously posted in the court building. The performance of duties described in this section shall not constitute the practice of law as defined in section 484.010. Such form for pro se motions shall not require the assistance of legal counsel to prepare and file. The cost of filing the motion shall be the standard court costs otherwise due for instituting a civil action in the circuit court.

4. Within five court days after the filing of the family access motion pursuant to subsection 3 of this section, the clerk of the court shall issue a summons pursuant to applicable state law, and applicable local or supreme court rules. A copy of the motion shall be personally served upon the respondent by personal process server as provided by law or by any sheriff. Such service shall be served at the earliest time and shall take priority over service in other civil actions, except those of an emergency nature or those filed pursuant to chapter 455. The motion shall contain the following statement in boldface type:

"PURSUANT TO SECTION 452.400, RSMO, YOU ARE REQUIRED TO RESPOND TO THE CIRCUIT CLERK WITHIN TEN DAYS OF THE DATE OF SERVICE. FAILURE TO RESPOND TO THE CIRCUIT CLERK MAY RESULT IN THE FOLLOWING:

- (1) AN ORDER FOR A COMPENSATORY PERIOD OF CUSTODY, VISITATION OR THIRD-PARTY CUSTODY AT A TIME CONVENIENT FOR THE AGGRIEVED PARTY NOT LESS THAN THE PERIOD OF TIME DENIED;
- (2) PARTICIPATION BY THE VIOLATOR IN COUNSELING TO EDUCATE THE VIOLATOR ABOUT THE IMPORTANCE OF PROVIDING THE CHILD WITH A CONTINUING AND MEANINGFUL RELATIONSHIP WITH BOTH PARENTS;
- (3) ASSESSMENT OF A FINE OF UP TO FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS AGAINST THE VIOLATOR;
- (4) REQUIRING THE VIOLATOR TO POST BOND OR SECURITY TO ENSURE FUTURE COMPLIANCE WITH THE COURT'S ORDERS;
- (5) ORDERING THE VIOLATOR TO PAY THE COST OF COUNSELING TO REESTABLISH THE PARENT-CHILD RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE AGGRIEVED PARTY AND THE CHILD; AND
- (6) A JUDGMENT IN AN AMOUNT NOT LESS THAN THE REASONABLE EXPENSES, INCLUDING ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COURT COSTS ACTUALLY INCURRED BY THE AGGRIEVED PARTY AS A RESULT OF THE DENIAL OF CUSTODY, VISITATION OR THIRD-PARTY CUSTODY."

5. If an alternative dispute resolution program is available pursuant to section 452.372, the clerk shall also provide information to all parties on the availability of any such services, and within fourteen days of the date of service, the court may schedule alternative dispute resolution.

6. Upon a finding by the court pursuant to a motion for a family access order or a motion for contempt that its order for custody, visitation or third-party custody has not been complied with, without good cause, the court shall order a remedy, which may include, but not be limited to:

- (1) A compensatory period of visitation, custody or third-party custody at a time convenient for the aggrieved party not less than the period of time denied;
- (2) Participation by the violator in counseling to educate the violator about the importance of providing the child with a continuing and meaningful relationship with both parents;
- (3) Assessment of a fine of up to five hundred dollars against the violator payable to the aggrieved party;

(4) Requiring the violator to post bond or security to ensure future compliance with the court's access orders; and

(5) Ordering the violator to pay the cost of counseling to reestablish the parent-child relationship between the aggrieved party and the child.

7. The court shall consider, in a proceeding to enforce or modify a permanent custody or visitation order or judgment, a party's violation, without good cause, of a provision of the parenting plan, for the purpose of determining that party's ability and willingness to allow the child frequent and meaningful contact with the other party.

8. The reasonable expenses incurred as a result of denial or interference with custody or visitation, including attorney's fees and costs of a proceeding to enforce visitation rights, custody or third-party custody, shall be assessed, if requested and for good cause, against the parent or party who unreasonably denies or interferes with visitation, custody or third-party custody. In addition, the court may utilize any and all powers relating to contempt conferred on it by law or rule of the Missouri supreme court.

9. Final disposition of a motion for a family access order filed pursuant to this section shall take place not more than sixty days after the service of such motion, unless waived by the parties or determined to be in the best interest of the child. Final disposition shall not include appellate review.

10. Motions filed pursuant to this section shall not be deemed an independent civil action from the original action pursuant to which the judgment or order sought to be enforced was entered."; and"; and

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 101st GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-THIRD DAY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Herman Morse.

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. We are thankful for all of our blessings which You shower upon us: where we live, our families, our health, our ability to earn a livelihood, our country. We are mindful of our friends, family, coworkers who are dealing with adversity and we ask Your blessings of comfort and healing upon them.

Help us in this chamber to focus on our similarities rather than our differences because I believe that the former outnumber the latter. It may not be a stretch, Lord, to add “republicans nor democrats; republicans nor progressives; conservatives nor liberals” to Paul’s list in Galatians 3:28.

Be with us this day and in the future. Be with us as we travel back and forth to our homes. Be with us as we do business in the people’s house.

And the House says, “Amen!”

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Kyra McKinney and Carter Murray.

The Journal of the twenty-second day was approved as printed by the following vote:

AYES: 142

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 101st GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-FOURTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative J. Eggleston.

Our Lord, God, on this day, we ask that You please help us to recall that our purpose here is one of humble service.

Help us accept that we are not here to pursue our own benefits, nor to labor for our prior employer, nor to be the boss or master of the people who elected us, but rather to be their servant, their voice, and their advocate.

Help us, Lord, to feel the eyes and ears of our constituents watching our actions and hearing our words as we go about our day, just as we know You watch over us with Your inspiration and Your judgment.

And, Lord, help us in the House complete our good work for the people of our state, and help those in the Senate do the same and rediscover their path to statesmanship.

It is in Your name, O Lord, that we make these humble requests.

And the House says, "Amen."

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Paige Thomas, Liffey Barger, Jaki Hilbert, Emmeline Beasley, Sophia Williamson, and Aubrey Schulz.

The Journal of the twenty-third day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

EIGHTEENTH DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative John Black.

Forgive us, O God, for all our boasting and our presumptuous sins of pride and arrogance, for these are days that humble us.

By Thy grace, we become more and more aware of our limitations and our weaknesses.

Let us not mistake humility for an inferiority complex, but help us to understand that with the proud and the self-sufficient Thou canst do nothing until Thou hast brought them to their knees.

We need Thy help, our Father, and we seek it humbly. We want to do right, and to be right; so start us in the right way, for Thou knowest that we are very hard to turn. Shed forth Thy grace upon us, O Lord, that each man here may say, "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me." We ask it in His name. Amen.

Prayers offered by the Chaplain the Rev. Peter Marshall, D. D. at the Opening of the Senate of the United States during the Eightieth and Eighty-First Congresses, 1947-1949. (Washington, D.C.: Government Printing Office, 1949), pg. 7, Friday, February 7, 1947.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Brooklyn Johnson.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 27, authorizes the Governor to control the rate at which any appropriation is expended by allotment and, further, authorizes the Governor to reduce the expenditures of the state or any of its agencies below their appropriations whenever the actual revenues are less than the revenue estimates upon which the appropriations were based; and

WHEREAS, in addition to the power to control the rate of expenditure established in Article IV, Section 27, three percent of each appropriation, with the exception of amounts for personal service to pay salaries fixed by law, shall be set aside pursuant to section 33.290, RSMo, as a reserve fund and not subject to expenditure except with the approval of the Governor; and

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 27.2, provides that the Governor notify the General Assembly “whenever the rate at which any appropriation shall be expended is not equal quarterly allotments, the sum of which shall be equal to the amount of the appropriation”; and

WHEREAS, due to a variety of factors, including the three percent reserve that is legally required by section 33.290, RSMo, the rate at which most appropriations are expended is not in “equal quarterly allotments, the sum of which shall be equal to the amount of the appropriation”; and

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 27.3, provides that the Governor notify the General Assembly “when the governor reduces one or more items or portions of items of appropriation of money as a result of actual revenues being less than the revenue estimates upon which the appropriations were based.”

NOW THEREFORE, I, Michael L. Parson, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI, pursuant to Article IV, Section 27, do hereby make the following notification to the One Hundred First General Assembly of the State of Missouri:

I hereby notify the General Assembly, pursuant to Article IV, Section 27.2 of the Missouri Constitution, that through the second quarter of fiscal year 2022, the rate of expenditure for each of the appropriation lines in the fiscal year 2022 budget attached as Exhibit A is not in equal quarterly allotments, the sum of which shall be equal to the amount of the appropriation.

I further notify the General Assembly, pursuant to Article IV, Section 27.3 of the Missouri Constitution, that I have taken no action to permanently reduce one or more items or portions of items of appropriation of money as a result of actual revenues being less than the revenue estimates upon which the appropriations were based in the fiscal year 2022 budget.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Missouri, in the City of Jefferson, this 28 day of January, 2022.

/s/ Michael L. Parson
Governor

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 101st GENERAL ASSEMBLY

NINETEENTH DAY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Brad Pollitt.

Let us pray:

Dear Heavenly Father, we briefly pause this morning to thank You for this day and thank You for the many blessings You have bestowed upon each member of this assembly. We pray for those that are less fortunate. We humbly ask for You to forgive us when we forget just how truly blessed we really are.

We thank You for the men and women in uniform that stand guard over our country and over our communities and we ask You to give them a day of protection and their families a day of rest. We pray for our nation and we ask that You have patience with us as we struggle to find our way back into Your loving arms. In Your word You state that whoever comes to You will never go hungry and whoever believes in You will never be thirsty. Help us to put Your words into our everyday practices.

I lift up the members of this chamber and thank You for their servant hearts. I ask You to be with our families back home as they sacrifice so we can be here to do the people's work. Most of all, we thank You for sending Your son JESUS to die on the cross and save us from our sins.

And it is in his name we pray and the House says AMEN.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the eighteenth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 101st GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTIETH DAY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Bishop Davidson.

Heavenly Father, much of Jesus' life and many of Jesus' words have not been written down, but of those words we do have, we read of His birth, ministry, disciples, and detractors—His teachings, travels, trials and triumph. But there is only one place where Your Son reflects on His own heart. In the book of Matthew He shares that He is “gentle and humble in heart,” which allows Him to say in confidence, “Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest,” because the heart which is gentle and humble is a heart which gives rest to those around it.

Jesus, we desire those things we do not have. This prayer for me reflects that truth. I can be harsh and prideful, but I also have faith that I can be transformed.

These are my colleagues, my friends, and we often have every professional and political incentive to not be gentle and not be humble, but make us those things today. And if that gentleness and humility permeates us, then perhaps we will also pray to make us gentle and humble tomorrow too.

Because by these virtues we might sow seeds of unity, serve the people of Missouri, and edify our souls all at once.

Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the nineteenth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 101st GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-FIRST DAY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Adam Schwadron.

Our God and God of our ancestors, with mercy accept our prayer. Pour out Your blessing upon this State, upon its inhabitants, upon its leaders, its judges, officers, and officials, who faithfully devote themselves to the needs of the public.

Help us understand the rules of justice You have decreed, so that peace and security, happiness and freedom will never depart from our land. Eternal God, whose spirit is in all creatures, we pray that Your spirit be awakened within all the inhabitants of our land.

Uproot from our hearts hatred and malice, jealousy and strife. Plant love and companionship, peace and friendship among the many peoples and faiths who dwell in our nation. May it be Your will that our land be a blessing to all who dwell on earth, and may You cause all peoples to dwell in friendship and freedom.

May the Lord bless you and keep you. May the Lord's countenance shine upon you and be gracious to you. May the Lord lift His face unto you and give you peace.

And together the House says, AMEN.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twentieth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 101st GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTEENTH DAY, MONDAY, JANUARY 31, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Dan Stacy.

Let us pray. (Matthew 6:9-13)

Our Father, (Thank You for relating to us as a father, as a protector and provider, as a judge yet showing us mercy.)
Our Father who is in heaven,
Hallowed be Your name.

Your kingdom come. (Father, this reminds us that we are waiting for Christ's return. We acknowledge that Your reign yields ultimate blessing, and we should look to You to guide us as we seek to govern.)

Your will be done, (Father, although each of us has desires and preferences, we should be seeking Your will, which is higher and more perfect than ours.) on earth as it is in heaven. (Father, Your son Jesus said Your kingdom is not of the world, yet we ask You to guide us today in this material world. We acknowledge that our human free will generates a whole lot of evil in this world, yet we ask Your will to operate on earth as we know Your will operates unchallenged in heaven. Help our will to be in conformity with Your will, Lord.)

Give us this day our daily bread. (Lord, we acknowledge that everything good that comes to us comes because of Your grace and mercy and desire to bless us. By the act of creating the world and us, You are ultimately responsible, even for the things that we may do for ourselves.)

And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. (Lord, we recognize that forgiveness is not common in this world, but You have shown evidence that You are willing to forgive us when we seek Your ways, so help us to forgive others who have wronged us.)

And do not lead us into temptation, (Lord, we realize that many times when tempted our human frailty fails You, so we ask You to help us avoid temptation.) but deliver us from evil. (And, Lord, we thank You that You have already provided a sacrifice for us to win the war against evil.)

Help us today as we try to serve each other!

Help us today as we serve the people of Missouri!

And we pray these things in the name of Jesus, and the House said, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the fourteenth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 101st GENERAL ASSEMBLY

ELEVENTH DAY, MONDAY, JANUARY 24, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Danny Busick.

Dear Lord, our great heavenly Father, creator of all:

Hear our prayer today. Lord, I pray that You grant each one here in this chamber the gift of humility. With that humility give us a servant's heart, not just for our constituents that we represent but with each other as fellow members of this body. Help us to open our eyes and hearts to show compassion to our constituents as well as fellow members in need. So many times we fail in this manner, please forgive us of those failures. Lord, put within us Your love and push us to share that great love. Please grant us this prayer. And, Lord, I would like to pray the prayer that Jesus shared with His disciples as example of prayer. And I would like to ask the body to join me in reciting that prayer if they so choose.

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
(Matthew 6:12)

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the tenth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

TWELFTH DAY, TUESDAY, JANUARY 25, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Ingrid Burnett.

"Make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, virtue with knowledge, knowledge with self-control, self-control with endurance, endurance with devotion, devotion with mutual affection, mutual affection with love."
(2 Peter 1:5-7)

Loving God, Creator and our help in ages past, You are our hope and source of inspiration. We invite you now to enter our hearts as we gather in this chamber and lift our hearts to You, seeking strength and wisdom from Your never failing and ever faithful presence.

In a few minutes we will be offering a solemn oath of fidelity as we pledge allegiance to our flag and the union it stands for, and to our Republic and the government it authorizes. Over the last couple of years, we have watched the very fabric of this nation remain intact, even through the politics of a pandemic and global economic stress. Now, more than ever, we need the guidance of Your spirit and the power of Your presence. Help us to remember the men, women, and children who make up the fabric of our communities. Give us wisdom to recognize Your inspiration in those who work to bring us to a place of healing and peace.

Bless all the men and women who work to support the health and well-being of our beloved Missouri. Our health care providers and our teachers are especially in need of the reassurance of Your Holy Spirit and the fortitude of Your authority. May Your spirit dwell richly in their hearts as they carry out their many responsibilities and duties.

Gracious Lord, You have called each one of us here for Your purpose, and we thank You for this magnificent responsibility. Break these hearts of stone and give us hearts for love alone to stand united with each other under God with liberty and justice for all.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Noah Kleinlehrer.

The Journal of the eleventh day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 101st GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTEENTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 26, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Mike Haffner.

Lord, as we gather in this chamber today, we praise You, for You are my God. I will exalt You and praise Your holy name, for in perfect faithfulness You have done wonderful things.

So, as we discuss and debate important legislation on this day, may we consider that this day is not about us; it is about the people of Missouri. Your word says "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding, and He shall direct your paths."

Lord, we need Your guidance and understanding to accomplish the work that is before us. Give us wisdom beyond our years, to understand the complexity of the issues; give us discernment to reveal the impact of every word and sentence within legislation; and give us the strength to see it through to the end.

And may all that we do, be done for Your glory, Lord.

And we pray these things in the name of Jesus, and the House said, "Amen."

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twelfth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

FOURTEENTH DAY, THURSDAY, JANUARY 27, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Steve Butz.

As we gather this morning to start a new day in the people's house, we reflect that in You, oh Lord, alone do we find true hope and recall the words of the prophet in the book of Lamentations, "Through the Lord's mercies we are not consumed. Because his compassion fails us not. The tender mercies of the Lord are renewed each morning. Great is thy faithfulness oh Lord."

Send Your Holy Spirit upon each of us, this morning.

Heal us!
Inspire us!
Lead us!
Forgive us!

We pray for a special blessing upon any of our members gathered here or our loved ones back home who are faced with a difficult personal issue or serious health concern.

We pray that we will be judged worthy to be called Your sons and daughters. To God be the glory! Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the thirteenth day was approved as corrected.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

EIGHTH DAY, TUESDAY, JANUARY 18, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Ben Baker.

Father, we pause today for a moment to recognize we need Your help to accomplish anything good. And it is in Your Word we find what is good and what exactly You require of us, where You admonished us to “do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God...”

So today give us the wisdom and strength to pursue Your purpose for us, to behave justly in all we do, to prioritize mercy in our interactions with others, and to walk in humility so that we may glorify You and serve the people with excellence.

As we delve into the business of the day, grant us a resolve to always seek truth as the foundation of every policy. Guide us not by emotion but by principle, and let our deliberation be so as there may be concession without coercion and conciliation without compromise. Give us grace that we might fulfill the task You have set before us with the utmost civility and respect for we know that is Your desire.

Challenge us to put aside any selfish ambition or motive and keep focused on what is best for the people we serve, so that our conscious may be clear knowing our course was pure.

Lord, lift our hearts and our spirits to be in accordance with Your perfect will, and draw us nearer to You this day, in Jesus’ name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the sixth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

NINTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 19, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Dirk Deaton.

Creator God who has made us from the dust, it is by Your sovereign power that You allow us to breathe in and exhale in this, and every moment.

Lord, may You guard us from the lie that we govern supreme. For we do not. As Your prophet Daniel wrote, "It is You who controls the events of this world; You who raises up leaders, and cuts them down; it is You who gives wisdom and understanding."

As we embark upon this new year and another legislative session, help us to invest in what lasts. Help us to remember the treasures of this earth are subject to decay and they will not last. Help us to not be so caught up in the temporal matters of the day that we neglect to stop and offer an encouraging word, or inquire about a colleague's sick child.

May You grant us these things, giving us the eyes to see what matters and what does not, and the ability to discern the difference. This, I pray, according to Your will. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the eighth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

The Sergeant-at-Arms announced the approach of the Honorable Michael L. Parson, Governor of the State of Missouri. The Governor was duly escorted to the House Chamber and the Speaker's dais, where he delivered the following message to the Assembly in Joint Session.

STATE OF THE STATE ADDRESS BY GOVERNOR MICHAEL L. PARSON

Thank you Lieutenant Governor, Mr. Speaker, statewide officials, Judges of the Missouri Supreme Court, and state legislators. It is an honor again to stand before you today as the 57th Governor of the Great State of Missouri.

Once again, we are at an exciting time for Missouri and our future. This past year we celebrated the bicentennial of our state and 150 years of the Missouri Governor's Mansion.

And I am honored to have served as Missouri's Governor during this remarkable milestone for our state.

The First Lady and I were fortunate to be able to tour Missouri and visit communities all across the state and witness their individual contributions to our rich history.

From the Ulysses S. Grant National Historic Site in St. Louis to the Hubble Space Telescope in Marshfield...from Walt Disney in Marceline to Jesse James' birthplace in Kearney...from John J. Pershing in Laclede to Mark Twain in Hannibal...

AND how could we ever forget Maxie the Goose in small town Sumner, Missouri...

After more than 45 Bicentennial stops, the First Lady and I count ourselves blessed to have experienced the history, tradition, and heart and soul of what makes Missouri great.

Faith, family, neighbors helping neighbors... that's who Missourians are.

AND that's what makes Missouri the best state in the United States.

We were also able to host the Bicentennial Parade and Inaugural Ball that was enjoyed and celebrated by Missourians from all over our state.

Our historic parade included over 100 entries that proudly showcased communities all across Missouri...

Including the Lincoln University Marching Musical Storm, the Budweiser Clydesdales, Chinese Dragon Dancers, and the Negro League Baseball Museum.

It marked the first time in our state's history that an Inaugural Ball was held outside.

And we counted ourselves fortunate to be able to celebrate with thousands of Missourians, many of which had never experienced an Inaugural Ball.

BUT none of this would have been possible without the efforts state government undertook to lessen the impacts of COVID-19.

When I stood before you last year, our limited supply of COVID-19 vaccines were available for only a small group of Missourians.

No one had a roadmap or a playbook, and we knew we faced difficult times ahead.

Nevertheless, state government accepted the challenges and prevailed by focusing on fairness in our vaccine distribution efforts.

While there will always be endless critics to tell us how we could have done it better, the facts are we were the ones in the arena.

We made the tough decisions and NEVER cowered to the challenge.

Today, one of our greatest successes is in the fact that more than 94 percent of Missourians 65 and older, our most vulnerable population, have received protection from this virus.

AND nearly 75 percent of Missourians 18 and older have received a vaccine.

Now, while we have room to improve and encourage all Missourians to consider vaccination...

We have worked tirelessly to ensure that vaccines are available to every Missourian that wants one.

And we couldn't have done it without the dedicated public servants at the Department of Health and Senior Services; State Emergency Management Agency; the Missouri National Guard; Department of Public Safety; doctors, nurses, and health care professionals; and the thousands of local partners, for their bold and heroic actions throughout the pandemic.

Joining us today, are individuals we would like to give a special thanks to...

Michael McMillan and James Clark with the Urban League in St. Louis and Pastor Miles and Janet Miles-Bartee with Morning Star Baptist Church in Kansas City, were instrumental in helping vaccinate some of our most vulnerable populations.

With these trusted leaders aiding our efforts, we were able to get hundreds of thousands in Kansas City and St. Louis vaccinated.

Additionally, seated in the upper chamber is Colonel Russell Kohl with the Missouri National Guard, who helped lead our state vaccine operations.

Colonel Kohl and our Missouri National Guard members worked around the clock to get vaccines to Missourians as quickly as possible.

Our Missouri National Guard members answered the call... and completed the mission.

Would Michael, James, Pastor Miles, Janet, and Colonel Kohl please stand to be recognized?

Missouri is a diverse state and a one-size fits all approach will never work here.

In this state, we used common sense and took a balanced approach to the pandemic...

AND while that may not seem like a novel idea... When you look to some of the policies and mandates in other states and places... you find that common sense may not be so common.

That's why we never had state mandates or forced businesses, schools, or churches to close.

We protected lives and livelihoods.

AND when it comes to COVID-19 mandates, I firmly believe that the people should have say through their local elected representatives and not be dictated by needless executive action or any one person.

That's why I don't support and have never supported mandates and Missourians can rest assured that my position WILL NOT CHANGE.

Today, our economy has nearly fully recovered, and we have the opportunity to make fundamental improvements to our state that will serve Missourians now and into the future.

Missouri is STRONG today and will be EVEN STRONGER tomorrow.

Missouri has a solid foundation and that is something we should all be proud of... Republicans, Democrats, and Independents ... rural, suburban, and urban...

It is a foundation that has helped propel our state to new heights in just a few short years and has set us on a course to achieve even greater accomplishments.

Unfortunately, it seems success can get purposely overshadowed because positive news doesn't sell headlines. But rest assured, we refuse to discount the good things happening in Missouri.

Whether you live in the bootheel, the Ozarks, St. Louis, Kansas City, or anywhere across the state, our relentless focus on workforce development and infrastructure is paying dividends for ALL Missourians.

Our unemployment rate sits at 3.5 percent, that's below where we were BEFORE the pandemic and below the national average.

And when we had an all time high of 385,000 individuals on unemployment, we knew we had to take action and solve this problem.

Missouri was one of the first in the nation to cutoff federal unemployment benefits...and today, only 21,000 are drawing benefits.

This was the right call and the right thing to do.

We are finding economic success, but with 116,000 job openings across the state, now more than ever, it is important to double down on workforce development and skill up our workers to fill these open jobs.

We can't be satisfied with the same as before. We must focus on making our state even stronger.

Even during the pandemic, we created more than 21,000 NEW jobs and saw nearly $5.2 BILLION dollars in private investment.

In 2021, we saw new businesses and existing businesses expanding their footprint in Missouri, including:

Deli Star with nearly $100 million dollars invested and 475 new jobs in St. Louis,

Gateway Studios with $111 million dollars invested and more than 100 new jobs created in Chesterfield,

M-E-M-C, a semiconductor manufacturing company, invested $210 million dollars and 75 new jobs created in O'Fallon, and

John Deere Reman with $11 million dollars and 130 new jobs created in Springfield...

BUT business investment didn't just occur near Missouri's urban centers.

We saw...

Carlisle Construction Materials invest $62 million dollars and create 100 new jobs in Sikeston,

Swift Prepared Foods invested $250 million dollars and created nearly 400 new jobs in Moberly and Columbia,

American Foods Group plans to invest $450 million dollars and create 1,300 new jobs in Warren County

Amazon created 400 new jobs in Republic,

Frozen Food Express invested $6 million dollars and created 60 new jobs in Butler,

CoffeeTree Group created 50 new jobs in Marceline, a town of just 2,000 people,

AND we could go on and on.

But the point is, whether in our small towns, big cities, or anywhere in between, Missouri is open for business...and business is GOOD.

The rest of the nation is taking notice and companies are looking to our state for their future business expansions.

AND while we're at it, I want all of you to hear some of the amazing recognitions and rankings our state has earned because we ALL work together:

We are 1st in the United States for On-The-Job Training

We are 3rd in the United States for apprenticeships

We are 3rd in the United States for our business tax index – far outranking all of our neighboring states.

We are 4th in the United States for new manufacturing facilities

We are 4th in the United States for the best place to retire

We are 5th in the United States for our low cost of doing business

We are 7th in the United States for people relocating to our state

We are 7th in the United States for Tech Manufacturing Growth

Believe it or not...I'm only half way through...

We are 8th in the United States for economic recovery,

We are 8th in the United States for best place to work for nurses,

We are 9th in the United States for military retirees,

We are 9th in the United States for housing affordability,

We are 10th in the United States for our Automobile and Aerospace industries,

We are 10th in the United States for new business expansion,

We are 10th in the United States for site selection,

And now Ladies, listen to this one...We are 10th in the United States for Women in Technology.

Later this evening when we share these rankings with each of you, I hope you promote these wins for every district...every county...every Missourian.

The bottom line is Missouri's economy is STRONG.

With a historic budget surplus and federal dollars coming to our state, we want to build on our past momentum to capture even greater opportunities for the future of Missourians.

But I want to remind you that our economy is strong despite federal funding. When other states will be using federal dollars to fill spending gaps and budget shortfalls...

We will be making investments in the future, because in Missouri, we took a common sense approach to the pandemic, never shutdown businesses, and have always had a conservative and balanced budget.

You will be happy to hear that thanks to record economic performance...

Missourians will receive an additional tax cut this year.

The tax rate will be reduced to a new low of 5.3 percent, easing Missourians' tax burden yet again.

Thanks to common sense, responsible spending, and working with the General Assembly, this will be the second (2nd) time our administration has cut taxes for Missourians.

However, we must work to maintain this strong economic position by establishing a Cash Operating Expense Fund.

By setting aside an additional 2.5 percent of general revenue, we will achieve financial stability when the rainy days come.

This is the responsible thing to do... this is the conservative thing to do... this is the right thing to do...

From the beginning, we challenged the legislature to support workforce development and infrastructure, strengthen our communities, and improve government.

AND we have achieved some historic wins in each of those areas...together.

Workforce and Education

This session, we must recommit ourselves to helping skill up our workforce and preparing the next generations for the demands of the future.

Over the last few years, it has become more important than ever to provide adults with opportunities to learn new skills and develop their career potential.

In just a short time, and despite the pandemic, our Fast Track program saw a 65 percent increase in participants in 2021.

To our surprise, 80 percent of the recipients are women and 50 percent are first-generation college students.

Additionally, more than 50 percent are enrolled in health care programs, which has become a blessing considering the past 22 months.

We are happy to have two outstanding Fast Track participants from Bolivar Technical College with us here today.

Shanisha Alexander and Bryan Webb are pursuing degrees in nursing.

And we are proud of these students for their commitment and working toward a better future for themselves and their families.

Would Miss Alexander and Mr. Webb please stand to be recognized?

As you can see, this program is making a real difference for many Missourians and that is why we must permanently establish this program.

In 2019, we also revamped Missouri One Start through the Talent for Tomorrow initiative and today that program is ranked NINTH in the United States.

In just three years, Missouri One Start has assisted companies locating or expanding in Missouri with more than 700 programs aimed at recruiting and training new employees.

More than 76,000 workers have received training through this successful program.

To continue on this path, we must have a talented and dedicated team across state government.

I know that many of you would agree, that Missouri has some of the best of the best in our ranks.

The success of our state relies heavily on these public servants, and we must ensure we are able to recruit and retain quality team members to serve Missouri.

AND that is why we are proposing an immediate 5.5 percent cost of living adjustment for all state employees.

This is long overdue.

Another group of dedicated state team members is my Cabinet.

Our administration wouldn't have success without these individuals leading our state workforce.

Leading 16 departments and 42,000 individuals is no small task, but we couldn't be more proud of the work they do every day.

Would members of my Cabinet please stand to be recognized for the incredible things you have done for the citizens of the great State of Missouri.

The future of Missouri – and Missouri families – relies upon children being healthy, safe, and ready to learn. We must continue to invest in our children and their education.

My own daughter is a public school teacher, and I know the tough jobs our educators take on. But they answer the call and work hard every day to prepare the next generation of Missourians.

Our students deserve a quality education and their parents demand it.

And that is why we are again fully funding the Foundation Formula.

Our teachers, administrators, and staff work tirelessly to support Missouri's students...

Last year, 95 percent of Missouri schools saw the value of in-person learning and did the right thing by keeping their doors open and our kids in schools where they belong.

AND thanks to their efforts, Missouri ranked 5th in the United States for highest proportion of in-person learning during the 20-21 school year.

Nothing can replace the classroom, and we are proud of those who recognize this and thank them for their dedication to Missouri children.

Unfortunately, Missouri is currently ranked 50th in United States for starting teacher pay and half of our new teachers leave the profession by their fifth year.

This is unacceptable, and we must do better.

That is why we are proposing to raise teacher pay in every corner of this state...

By partnering with local school districts, we can increase the baseline salary for new teachers to $38,000 dollars...and take the first step in addressing this issue.

I want to take a moment to highlight one of our exceptional educators here in Missouri.

Ms. Beth Houf is the principal of Fulton Middle School and was recently named the National Principal of the year by the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

This marks the first time in our state history that a Missouri principal has earned this top recognition.

We know the vast majority of Missouri educators get it right day-in and day-out, and Ms. Houf is a shining example of someone who gets it right.

Ms. Houf, would you please stand to be recognized?

No one in this chamber would be where they are today without quality educators in their lives...myself included.

In the current labor shortage, we must make lasting investments in our state's continuing education programs to prepare the next generations for the jobs of the future.

That is why we are requesting $31 million dollars for our colleges and universities through MO Excels projects. This will help expand enrollment in high-demand jobs.

Additionally, we are investing $20 million dollars in grant funding for our 57 area career centers to expand career and technical education programs.

With us here today, are students in career and technical education programs that represent schools and communities across the state that will benefit from these investments...

- From Northland Career Center's law enforcement training academy, we have...
 - Major Audrey Strobe and Sergeant Nate Wassam.
- From Cape Girardeau Career and Technology Center, we have...
 - Nicholas Hodges, Computer Networking and Security
 - Lydia Strickland, Graphic Design
 - Anwyn Suhr, Digital Media
- From Carthage Technical Center Health Sciences, we have...
 - Olivia Bourgaulet
 - Danny Darland
 - Carly Simpson
- From Jefferson City Nichols Career Center, we have Cody Elliot, a 2nd year welding student.
- From Pike-Lincoln Technical Center, we have...
 - Destyni Gabel, Building Trades and Construction
 - Haley Dowell, Auto Collision,
 - Joel Mound, Diesel Technology.

It's programs like these that offer a path for students to pursue high-demand, good-paying jobs, and we must continue to support them in this state.

Please join me in recognizing these hard-working students.

After working closely with Missouri's higher education institutions, we are very proud to be able to increase our investment in higher education.

We will recommend funding for the top capital improvement at state community colleges and 4-year institutions.

Combined with the MoExcels projects and scholarship opportunities, this investment will total nearly $600 million dollars...

AND generate over $1.1 billion dollars in economic impact for our state.

Infrastructure

As I've often said, workforce development and infrastructure go hand in hand. For our state to be successful, we must invest in both.

Communities across the state are faced with costly public water and wastewater system repair and replacement.

In order for individuals to live, work, and raise a family, the maintenance and improvement of these public systems must be a priority.

The state and local governments must work together to make meaningful and lasting investments that will strengthen every town and county in the state.

Under our proposal, we will make $250 million dollars available to communities across the state to enhance access to safe drinking water and responsible wastewater...

AND $150 million dollars to enhance storm water systems.

While I do not agree with the massive expansion of federal debt, the responsibility falls to us to invest wisely and make smart decisions...we must do what the federal government cannot.

Speaking of strengthening our communities, we are incredibly proud of the progress that has been made thanks to Focus on Bridges. This program set out to repair or replace 250 bridges across the state.

We are now nearing completion of 75 percent of those bridges, and this program's success has allowed us to leverage hundreds of millions of dollars in additional infrastructure investments in every region of the state.

It is critical that we continue making these important investments.

That is why we are proposing $75 million dollars to continue our Transportation Cost-Share program for road and bridge projects that bring economic impact to our state...

And $100 million dollars to improve low-volume roads and minor routes across the state of Missouri.

These are the hardest routes to fund and are important to local communities, especially in rural Missouri.

This investment will help us free up additional funding for much needed projects in suburban and urban areas...leaving no region behind.

This year, we are also proposing $400 million dollars to further increase broadband, the largest single investment in state history.

This investment will increase access across Missouri for rural areas, but also urban areas that are under-served.

With this plan, we will connect 75,000 households with high-speed broadband.

AND invest $30 million dollars toward constructing and upgrading cell towers to expand wireless networks across the state.

This is another core investment we are making for the next generation and the future of our state...

Agriculture

Road and bridge repair and broadband expansion are not only important for every Missourian but are critical for our state's number one industry...Agriculture.

For Missouri agriculture to remain strong, we must prioritize the extension of critical agricultural tax credits that support Missouri farmers and ranchers, ag-businesses, and value-added products.

Because we must always stand with Missouri's diverse group of agricultural producers.

These men and women wake up every day to feed and fuel the world, AND this has been especially true over the past 22 months.

When we were facing tough food-supply chain issues...they adjusted, they adapted, and they put food on the table, allowing us to avoid the hardships experienced in other states.

That is why we are calling for $10 million dollars to expand agriculture innovation and workforce programs.

Investments like this help ensure the agriculture way of life in the state of Missouri can be passed down to the next generations.

Speaking of the next generations, seated in the upper gallery, we have members of the Paris, Missouri FFA Chapter, which was recently recognized as the 2021 National FFA Chapter of the year... the highest award a chapter can earn in the nation.

Out of nearly 9,000 chapters nationwide, we are proud to be home to the National FFA Chapter of the year and even prouder of the Paris students.

Would members of the Paris FFA, please stand to be recognized?

With nearly $94 billion dollars in economic impact and nearly 460,000 jobs, Missouri is an agriculture state, and we must never forget it.

AND as a third-generation farmer, you can rest assured that agriculture will always remain a top priority for this administration.

Community Investments

Another area of focus this year is on creating more opportunities for our communities.

To further our goal to use public resources to make meaningful, long-term investments across the state, we will set aside $250 million dollars for a statewide revitalization grant program to spur local economic development.

This program will help bring economic opportunity to communities across the state, train more workers, define competitive advantages, and bring more jobs to Missouri.

Another asset for communities all across the state, is our state park and conservation network that is enjoyed by hundreds of thousands of visitors each year.

More and more people are getting out and experiencing Missouri's great outdoors...

AND this year, we have an opportunity to solidify this state asset and economic driver and expand tourism.

By investing $69 million dollars to start construction on the Rock Island trail...

We can help establish the largest circular rail-to-trail network in the United States and a world-class, one-of-a-kind destination for travelers coming to Missouri...while also supporting businesses and creating jobs.

Health Care

One of the lessons we learned from the COVID-19 pandemic is that we must also support our communities by strengthening our health care networks across the state.

That is why we are asking for a $34 million dollar investment in rural communities to increase access to telehealth and telemedicine services.

Another historic investment we are recommending is a new multi-agency state health laboratory.

This lab will accommodate the needs of the Department of Health and Senior Services, Department of Agriculture, Department of Conservation, and Department of Natural Resources and join them together on one campus.

This will lead to safer, healthier Missourians and a more efficient use of public resources.

This year, we are also proposing to double the capacity of our Missouri Autism centers.

This will help more families navigate the challenges of treating autism...

And reduce the backlog for Missouri families desperately needing services.

I want to thank State Treasurer Scott Fitzpatrick and the First Lady for helping bring this to our attention and working to get this done.

Public Safety

This year, we must take a renewed look at public safety and how best to fight violent crime.

We must continue to support our law enforcement professionals who put their lives on the line to protect our families.

We can do this by ensuring consistent requirements and appropriate penalties to hold violent criminals accountable...

While also protecting Missourian's second amendment rights, just as our administration has always done.

That said, it's not just how we deal with violent criminals, we must make sure those with behavioral health and substance use disorders receive the treatment and support they need.

Last year, with the support of the General Assembly, we made great progress in providing proper treatment options to Missourians by increasing community support through crisis stabilization centers and community behavioral health liaisons.

This year, we are asking to provide an additional $140 million dollars to support and increase services at health centers across the state.

Last year, we also highlighted the first law enforcement training academy in the country at a historically Black college at Lincoln University.

AND this year, we are building on that investment with over $11 million dollars for upgrades and to provide more scholarships for law enforcement officers to receive POST certification and put more officers on the streets.

Thanks to the leadership of Senator Williams, Senator Luetkemeyer, and Representative Roberts we can ensure our law enforcement professionals are using policing strategies and techniques that make us all proud.

With us here today is a very special guest...Missouri State Highway Patrol Trooper Colton J. Beck.

In December, Trooper Beck was attempting to conduct a routine traffic stop when the suspect fled and a pursuit ensued.

The suspect then opened fire on Trooper Beck, striking him in the face, neck, and upper torso.

Despite being seriously injured, Trooper Beck remained calm and assisted his fellow officers despite the threat posed to his life.

He is a proud example of all law enforcement officers who serve this state honorably.

Would you please join me in giving Trooper Beck a well-deserved round of applause?

Missourians respect law and order, but as a former Sheriff it alarms me to see some of the attitudes toward those who have taken an oath to defend our communities and keep us safe.

We must work to strengthen our communities by supporting our men and women in law enforcement.

AND learn from the failed policies in other cities and states to never allow anti-law enforcement measures to take hold in this state.

In Missouri, we DEFEND law enforcement, not defund them.

During my very first state of the state, I laid out our strategy to focus on workforce development and infrastructure...

Now, we have real opportunity to make lasting investments in these areas and the future of our state...

But with these opportunities comes a responsibility to be mindful about the role of government and where and how it should be involved.

Government should support...not mandate;

AND we must all remember that.

In this state...

We have created tens of thousands of new jobs, but we can do more.

We have built hundreds of new bridges and repaired thousands of miles of road, but we can do more.

We have expanded broadband to thousands of homes and businesses, but we can do more.

We have strengthened communities in urban areas, in suburban areas, in rural areas, but we can do more.

AND we are ready to stand with each and every one of you to do more for the people of Missouri.

It is our time...and the time is now.

CONCLUSION

In closing, there's a story from this past year that I want to share with all of you...

In September, I stood on the tarmac at Lambert Airport when a young man made his return home and when a family found the courage to welcome him...one last time.

Corporal Jared Schmitz made the ultimate sacrifice for his bravery in defending his nation during the withdrawal from Afghanistan.

He did his duty with honor and without question to protect freedom for his family, his community, his state, and his nation.

AND in such a difficult moment, one wonders how we can ever make it through...but by taking a look around, you can always find the answer... our people.

When our nation couldn't be more divided...I saw a community that couldn't be closer.

When a family felt pain and loss...I saw them embraced by friends, neighbors, and total strangers.

In THIS challenging moment...I saw the best of who Missourians are.

And that's why I'm proud to be the Governor of this great state.

AND as we close out these past 22 months and look to our next chapter...remember...our strength is our people.

When times are hard, Missourians move forward.

When someone is down, Missourians lift them up.

These past years have been tough and dividing for a lot of people, but Missourians stay true...they give their best...and they always put others first.

AND we are a better state...a better people... because of it.

When we look to the future and not dwell in the past, when we find solutions instead of problems...when we stand together instead of apart...we can accomplish anything.

We must always Keep Pushing Forward in this state, because no one is coming to do it for us.

Missouri is STRONG today and will be EVEN STRONGER tomorrow.

It is an honor and privilege to serve as the 57th Governor of the state of Missouri.

God bless you, God bless the great state of Missouri, and God bless the United States of America.

The Joint Session was dissolved by Senator Rowden.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 101st GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRD DAY, MONDAY, JANUARY 10, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Brad Hudson.

Father God,

As we come before You today, may we do so realizing that in ourselves we are lowly creatures incapable of doing any lasting good without Your help. So we ask for Your help, Lord. When decisions are to be made, we need Your wisdom to guide us. When the days are long, we need Your strength to sustain us. When conversations become heated, we need Your love to lead us. And when we fail, we need Your mercy to forgive us.

Some day our lives will be over. While history may judge our work, You alone are the great judge of the human soul. May we be mindful of the fact that any good that is to be manifested in that hour will not be a result of our wisdom, our strength, or our abilities, but as a result of Your grace.

Please give us what we need to do what You want us to do, for as we read in Your Word, "Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever."

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the second day was approved as printed by the following vote:

HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

HR 3286, relating to House procedures relating to Congressional apportionment, was taken up by Representative Plocher, and was read.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 3286

WHEREAS, under Article III, Section 45 of the Constitution of Missouri, when the number of representatives to which the state is entitled in the House of the Congress of the United States under the census is certified to the governor, the general assembly shall by law divide the state into districts corresponding with the number of representatives to which it is entitled, which districts shall be composed of contiguous territory as compact and as nearly equal in population as may be; and

WHEREAS, due to the unique nature of Congressional apportionment bills, which divide the state into Congressional districts, it is necessary to adopt temporary rules for the consideration of such bills:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Missouri House of Representatives, One Hundred First General Assembly, Second Regular Session, adopt certain temporary rules for the purpose of considering Congressional apportionment bills; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that, notwithstanding House Rule 49 or any other rule to the contrary, neither substitute amendments nor amendments to amendments shall be in order for any Congressional apportionment bill other than for technical corrections; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a four-hour time limitation be designated on the total time of floor debate allowed for the purpose of considering any Congressional apportionment bill for perfection. Such time shall be divided equally between, and controlled by, the chair of the special committee on redistricting and the ranking minority member of such committee, or their respective designees. The chair of the special committee on redistricting shall have the right to have the final one minute of designated time. If time has been allocated and unused by either side after any Congressional apportionment bill has been discussed and no member from that side is seeking recognition to further discuss such bill, the Speaker may declare additional time waived and recognize the members of the other side to complete the use of their time. Nothing in this rule shall entitle any member to speak longer than the House Rules otherwise allow; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that, notwithstanding House Rule 99, props or visual aids that depict Congressional apportionment maps shall be permitted on the floor of the House while the House is in session and considering any Congressional apportionment bill. All such props or visual aids and the location of their display shall require approval by the Speaker; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that, notwithstanding House Rule 49(2) or any other rule to the contrary, an amendment identical to one previously decided on a Congressional apportionment bill shall be in order; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that, notwithstanding House Rule 49(4) or any other rule to the contrary, an amendment that effectually replaces the underlying Congressional apportionment bill or committee substitute shall be in order; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that, notwithstanding House Rule 49(1)(b), any amendments to a Congressional apportionment bill shall be distributed prior to Monday, January 17, 2022, at 2 p.m.; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that any amendments to a Congressional apportionment bill shall comply with all legal requirements for apportionment and a point of order may be raised that an amendment offered would result in an unlawful apportionment; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that all other Rules of the Missouri House of Representatives, One Hundred First General Assembly, shall apply to the consideration of Congressional apportionment bills as such rules are appropriate and not in conflict with the rules adopted herein.

On motion of Representative Plocher, HR 3286 was adopted by the following vote:

Introduction

In the 2019 session, the General Assembly passed Senate Bill 391, sponsored by Senator Mike Bernskoetter, which modified the laws relating to agricultural operations. The bill also established the "Joint Committee on Agriculture." The joint committee met and issued a report in 2020 and has continued its efforts in 2021.

The joint committee is tasked with studying the economic impact of the agricultural industry in the state, the industry's ongoing efforts to improve environmental stewardship while also improving the economic sustainability of agriculture, ways to incentivize members of the industry to adopt best practices to address Missouri's carbon footprint, and the public's views on agricultural issues in general. As required by the legislation, the joint committee must issue a report by January 15 of each year. In 2021, the joint committee continued to build on the work it had completed in the fall of 2020. The joint committee held two public hearings on July 6 and September 8, 2021, in Jefferson City.

Summary of Public Testimony

July 6, 2021 Hearing

At the July 6, 2021, hearing in Jefferson City, the joint committee heard testimony from representatives of different sectors of the agriculture industry. Most of the testimony spoke to the challenges the agriculture industry faces.

Don Nikodim with the Missouri Pork Producers' Association spoke of the changes in hog farm operations in recent history, including the increase in environmentally controlled hog barns, the use of manure as a natural fertilizer for row crop operations, and strict nutrition plans to ensure the production of healthy animals. He also discussed the key issues facing the association's producers including the impact of African Swine Fever on swine markets, trade restrictions, production costs, packer capacity, and labor shortages. He noted that Missouri is sixth in pork production nationwide and has approximately 2700 operations throughout the state. Handouts from the presentation can be found in Appendix B.

Dr. Scott Brown, from the University of Missouri's Food and Agricultural Policy Research Institute, discussed the 2021 and beyond outlook for the agricultural industry including the factors that affect the returns. He also discussed the effects of COVID-19 on the different sectors of the agriculture market, which were not equally distributed between the sectors, and how the sectors have rebounded in 2021. A copy of his presentation can be found in Appendix C.

Tony Clayton, with Clayton Agri-Marketing in Jefferson City, gave testimony on how regulatory hurdles have affected the livestock export industry. Clayton discussed the impact of certain diseases on the export markets for livestock and the steps, as an exporter, he must take to move animals throughout the country and the world. One problem he specifically spoke to was the need to train large animal veterinarians on requirements for exporting animals. He also spoke of the benefits of the federal animal identification program when exporting animals to foreign nations.

Garrett Hawkins, the President of the Missouri Farm Bureau, introduced himself to the joint committee and spoke on the key issues facing the agriculture sector today, including the federal and state regulatory environments, climate change concerns, cattle market transparency, and property rights. The change in federal administration has also changed the environmental regulatory direction, especially as it relates to the definition of navigable waters, which will affect farmers and ranchers of the state. Missouri was at the forefront of the discussions previously and needs to be once again. The administration is also looking at regulations related to climate change. Farmers and ranchers need to be involved in the policy development and promote the projects that have already been in place that help offset climate change.

Hawkins also spoke of the need for market transparency in the cattle markets. The difference between the price farmers are receiving for fed cattle and the boxed beef prices should be investigated. There have been several bills introduced at the federal level to look at this differential and requires additional transparency in the markets.

Finally, Hawkins spoke of concerns Missouri Farm Bureau has regarding property rights in Missouri. He expressed concerns about the Grain Belt Express threatening condemnation to move its project forward. He also mentioned the Rock Island Railroad corridor being used as a recreation trail and the new state park in Oregon County, which he said local residents and businesses are most impacted by these projects. He also commended the General Assembly on the passage of Senate Bill 391 in 2019 and House Bill 270 in 2021 to protect landowners and livestock operations from additional regulatory burdens from local county health ordinances. Missouri Farm Bureau believes that the Department of Natural Resources is the proper regulatory authority for these operations.

Mike Deering with the Missouri Cattlemen's Association discussed the impact of recent legislation on the stability of regulations for livestock owners. Senate Bill 391 and House Bill 270 have helped increase consistency by removing county-by-county ordinances across the state and placing the authority for regulation on livestock industry at the state level. Deering also continued to express concerns regarding market transparency and price discovery in cattle markets. The Cattlemen's Association would like to see meaningful price discovery in cattle markets and has worked with Congresswoman Hartzler to draft federal legislation to require changes in the cattle markets.

Scott Swain with the Missouri Soybean Association discussed several issues that are important to the association including the promotion of Missouri biodiesel fuels, growing livestock production, transportation infrastructure, and farm productivity. Swain introduced Darrick Steen and Clayton Light, with the Missouri Soybean Association and the Missouri Corn Growers Association. Steen said that the efforts of farmers over the past 30 years have resulted in the reduction of 2.8 million tons of carbon dioxide released to the atmosphere.

Steen and Light also presented information on a conservation program the associations are working on implementing related to an ecosystem and carbon credit marketplace. Farmers invest in projects on their farms, which produce positive environmental outcomes that they can monetize by working with other organizations or corporations. Sixty-one producers are actively involved in the pilot program. A copy of Steen and Light's presentation can be found in Appendix D.

Dale Ludwig, Midwest Hemp Association, spoke about the hemp program in Missouri. One of the regulatory hurdles facing the industry is the permit cost for entering the industry. Several neighboring states have lower fees to grow hemp than the fees in Missouri. Ludwig went on to discuss the three types of hemp production and the challenges some hemp farmers have experienced. Lincoln University in Jefferson City has become a national leader on hemp research and is looking into solutions to some of the challenges.

Janie Dunning with Missouri Farm Bureau presented testimony regarding broadband access across the state. Dunning stated that at least 29 percent of farms in the United States do not have access to broadband internet. Broadband access is necessary for many aspects of agriculture including precision agriculture, marketing, and research. However, it is very costly to bring broadband infrastructure to many farms across the state. Costs to deploy broadband can range greatly depending on technology and terrain. Information presented by Dunning can be found in Appendix E.

Finally, Darrick Steen spoke on behalf of Bradley Shad for Missouri Corn Growers Association to voice the association's priorities. Those priorities include the MASBDA tax credits that are set to expire at the end of the year and a strong transportation system to move products to market.

September 8, 2021 Hearing

At the September 8, 2021, hearing in Jefferson City, the committee heard presentations on legislative priorities from stakeholders. Below is a list of legislative priorities presented to the committee.

Wood Tax Credit Renewal

Shannon Cooper with the Missouri Forest Products Association presented a proposal to renew the Wood Energy Tax Credit Program. The program was initially created in 1997 to provide incentives for sawmills to find beneficial uses for sawdust piles. The program provided $5 per ton for the transportation of wood waste and helped make Missouri the leader in charcoal production. The program sunset in June of 2020.

MASBDA Tax Credit and Sunset Extension

Emily LeRoy with the Department of Agriculture presented the Missouri Agricultural Small Business Development Authority (MASBDA) tax credit and sunset extension proposal. Three of MASBDA's current tax credit programs expire in 2021. These programs include the New Generation Cooperative Incentive and Agricultural Product Utilization Contributor Tax Credits, the Meat Processing Facility Investment Tax Credit.

BJ Tanksley with Missouri Farm Bureau, Scott Swain with Missouri Soybean Association, and Jason Zamkus with the Missouri Corn Growers Association spoke in support of the renewal of the tax credit programs. Information on the tax credit programs can be found in Appendix F.

Eminent Domain and Grain Belt Express

Co-Chairman Mike Haffner spoke about the eminent domain proposals that he filed in the 2021 session and how this proposal changed throughout the legislative process. Grain Belt Express has proposed a transmission line across Missouri to transmit wind energy to the East Coast. It is expected that no more than six percent of the energy will be used in Missouri. The proposal would prohibit projects such as Grain Belt from using the power of eminent domain to build the transmission lines and changes the certificate of necessity requirements for certain projects. Tanksley testified in support of this proposal and the concerns Missouri Farm Bureau has about the use of eminent domain for future projects as well as the Grain Belt Express.

Biodiesel Incentive

Scott Swain with the Missouri Soybean Association presented information on a proposal to issue a tax credit to retail dealers of biodiesel in the state. The proposal would promote the use of Missouri soybean based Biodiesel throughout the state. The five to 10 cent per gallon, depending on the blend, tax credit would be capped at $20 million.

Ethanol Incentive

Jason Zamkus with the Missouri Corn Growers Association presented a proposal previously filed aimed at increasing access to renewable fuels in the state. The proposal created a five cent per gallon tax credit for ethanol retailers. The program was capped at $4 million and had a six year sunset.

Steve Murphy with POET Bioprocessing and the Missouri Renewable Fuels Association spoke in favor of the tax credit. Bioethanol producers purchase more than 22 percent of the state's corn crop and supports farm families. This proposal would support family farms, create jobs, and lower fuel costs.

Rural Broadband

Janie Dunning with Missouri Farm Bureau spoke about priorities to move broadband forward in Missouri. One priority is providing adequate support to the state's Broadband Development Office within the Department of Economic Development. Also, the programs offered must include accountability provisions to ensure that recipients of state funds provide the services as awarded. Dunning stated that the state and federal funds designated to expand broadband are the most financial support ever awarded for these types of projects.

Anhydrous Ammonia

Senator Bernskoetter spoke regarding a proposal to eliminate duplicative oversight of anhydrous ammonia. Currently, both departments of Agriculture and Natural Resources regulate anhydrous ammonia. The proposed legislation would remove oversight by the Department of Agriculture and bring Missouri in compliance with EPA regulations.

Missouri State Fair Land Acquisition

Representative Brad Pollitt spoke about an opportunity for the Missouri State Fair to purchase 400 acres of land surrounding the fairgrounds. In recent years, the fair added 135 campground hookups, which reduced the amount of parking for daily parking. The owners of the adjoining property are willing to sell the property to the State Fair and State Fair Community College. The addition of this property would make the fairgrounds a viable venue for national events.

Right To Repair

Representative Barry Hovis spoke about a proposal to allow owners of products purchased or used in Missouri to have the right to access the same diagnostic and repair information that manufacturers supply to independent repair facilities and authorized repair providers. The legislation would protect proprietary information while allowing farmers to repair their own equipment.

Family Farms Act

Representative Greg Sharpe spoke about a proposal to modify the Family Farms Act to better reflect family farms across the state in order to be able to provide financial support to Missouri farmers. It would increase the gross sales allowed to qualify and the maximum amounts of the loans. The proposal would also remove the provisions that would only allow one loan per family and for one type of livestock.

LeRoy with the Department of Agriculture spoke in support of the proposal.

Land Surveys

Co-Chairman Haffner spoke about a proposal to update the land survey statutes. Rep. Don Mayhew filed a bill to codify current land surveying standards. LeRoy with the Department of Agriculture spoke in support of the proposal.

In addition to the legislative proposals, Brian Smith with the Rural Crisis Center testified regarding the Center's agricultural priorities. The Center would like the General Assembly to ban foreign corporate ownership of agricultural land. This ban would help protect both food and national security in the United States. Also, the Center would like to see a strengthening of the Department of Natural Resources' regulations for concentrated animal feeding operations to protect neighboring property owners and communities and restoration of the Clean Water Commission to the makeup prior to legislative changes in 2017. Finally, the center would like to see a concurrent resolution from the General Assembly asking the federal government to institute country of origin labeling for meat products.

Don Nikodim with the Missouri Pork Producers Association spoke about the contract farming system used the pork industry. The Producers Association supports investment in the industry and the rural communities in Missouri. The current corporations that own corporate farms, packing facilities, and contract with local farms provide investment into the rural communities of Missouri.

Introduction and Summary of Public Testimony

Speaker of the House Rob Vescovo appointed the Interim Committee on Broadband Development to investigate the status of broadband internet deployment in the State of Missouri in 2021, to conduct public hearings in Jefferson City, to conduct town hall meetings across Missouri, to take written testimony, and to prepare a report covering every facet of the importance of increasing broadband internet access across the entire State of Missouri. At the conclusion of this process, Speaker Vescovo requested recommendations for legislative and fiscal action that would ensure that all Missourians have access to broadband internet resources.

The members of the Committee included Representatives Louis Riggs (Chair), Cyndi Buchheit-Courtway, Bishop Davidson, Travis Fitzwater, Jay Mosely, Wes Rogers, and Travis Smith. Each member assisted with at least one town hall meeting in addition to their regular duties.

The lack of access to Broadband (high-speed) internet in much of rural America has been compared to the lack of access to electricity in rural American in the 1930's, when many utilities refused to provide electricity to areas that deemed "unprofitable."

As of the date this report is released, Missouri is ranked 32nd in the United States in terms of access. With an estimated 150,000 households unserved/underserved based on data released by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) in 2020, that is nearly 400,000 Missourians who do not have access to State-minimum 25/3 speeds at a time when the Federal government is increasing the minimum speeds it will fund to 100/20 (with 100/100 serving as the new benchmark). Within the last three years, Missouri was ranked as low as 49th in speed.

While Missouri has seen some progress, moving from 41st in access to 32nd due in some measure to the influx of funds from Connect America Fund (CAF II) funds, the USDA, and the US Department of Commerce, as well as significant expenditures from the State of Missouri Broadband Fund, there is still a tremendous amount of work to do in order to move Missouri from below the middle of the pack into the Top 10 states in the country.

As of this writing, Missouri ranks 44th in terms of home use of fixed broadband (64.6% in Missouri, national average 70.8%), 44th on reliance on cellular data for internet (14.4% in Missouri, national average 11.8%), 11th on reliance of satellite internet (8.3% in Missouri, national average 6.5%) and 15th for households with no internet access at all (15.0% in Missouri, national average 13.4%). As we approach 2022, none of these numbers is particularly encouraging and all demonstrate significant room for improvement across Missouri.

Much of the attention to gaps in broadband coverage has been focused on Missouri's Rural areas, again with ample justification. The major problem for Rural Missourians is lack of access itself. However, the broadband "digital divide" is not limited to Rural areas. The Interim Committee has heard significant testimony that the digital divide is also acute in Missouri's urban cores as well as in many suburban areas where the obstacle to broadband access hinges on the issue of affordability as well as physical access, particularly in low-income housing developments. Data from Pew Research Center identified household income as the primary determinant whether a household has a broadband connection. Some 57% of households making less than $30,000 per year and 74% of households making between $31,000-$49,999 per year have access in the home. In contrast, 98% of households with more than $75,000 have access in the home. One of the key take-aways of the COVID-19 situation is that online education access is a critical issue in every area of the State of Missouri, from the smallest Rural K-8 district to the largest urban and suburban school districts. School districts deployed thousands of wi-fi "hot spots" across the State of Missouri, with decidedly mixed results. Far too many students found that they could not make the hot spots work because they did not have a sufficient cell phone signal to activate the hot spots to begin with, rendering thousands of tablets issued to bridge the gap between in-seat and online classes completely useless.

Another key takeaway of the COVID-19 situation is that far too many Missouri senior citizens were unable to access remote medical services, known as "Telehealth," for a variety of reasons, including lack of bandwidth to enable Zoom and other technologies to work in their homes, but also due to lack of knowledge regarding operations of the computers in their homes. Significant testimony regarding the lack of digital literacy also points to a barrier to broadband adoption that has not been addressed in a meaningful sense at the statewide level in Missouri.

Testimony heard by the Committee also points to significant broadband-related barriers to workforce development as well deployment of precision agriculture resources using GPS technology. With the acceleration of the Internet of Things (IoT) and work from anywhere (WFA) remote workforces across the United States, now is the time to take significant steps to bridge the digital divide in Missouri once and for all.

Additional testimony concerned the negative impact that the Federal government has had on broadband development across the State of Missouri. The Federal approach has been based on deeply flawed premises, starting with using census block methodology that “checks the box” that every person within a census block is served if one household is served, a fallacy that affects hundreds of thousands of Missourians. The second deeply flawed premise is that the FCC maps that are used to determine those who are served, underserved and unserved are based on voluntary data furnished by providers that populate maps that are obsolete the moment they are released and do not accurately reflect the reality on the ground in real time. The third premise is that by shoveling huge sums of money into a reverse auction process that exalts quantity over quality, much of the Federal funding has been wasted on “solutions” that not only do not solve problems, they exacerbate existing digital gaps because many areas are deemed “served” have no semblance of universal access to Broadband (high-speed internet) whatsoever.

On the plus side, the Missouri Broadband Fund has been praised for its effective challenge process as well as its nearly 7:1 return on investment using matching funds that has attracted significant follow-on capital. The flexibility and responsiveness of the Missouri Broadband Office has also received high marks, administering matching fund grants as small as $25,000 using community standards instead of census block methodology to better reflect reality on the ground compared to the federal approach. The Parson Administration has signaled its willingness to invest a significant portion of Missouri’s American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) funding to broadband internet, a most welcome development in 2022 and immediately thereafter.

Meetings were held around the state as part of the fact-finding responsibilities of the Interim Committee on Broadband Development. Chapter 1: Access Missouri is currently ranked 32nd in the United States in terms of access, an improvement from 41st in access within the last three years. That is a significant improvement, but as mentioned in the introduction, Missouri lags behind the rest of the United States in every key factor that determines meaningful broadband access.

The General Assembly enacted a state standard of minimum 25/3 access in 2018 through H.B. 1872. This was based on the Federal standard announced by the FCC in order to determine eligibility for Federal funding as discussed previously. In 2021, ARPA guidelines announced a new recommendation (not yet a requirement) of 100/100 speeds, with approval of 100/20 when 100/100 was not practical. The Missouri General Assembly also enacted a ‘hierarchy’ of needs in 2018 to determine who was served and who was not: 10:1 or less speed is classified as “unserved,” 10:1-25:3 access is “underserved” and anything above 25:3 is deemed “served.” It is reasonably foreseeable that the Federal standard will only increase from this day forward, rendering existing statutes and standards obsolete (as will the march of technology itself).

As mentioned previously, physical access remains a barrier to deployment in Rural areas (also commonly classified as ‘last mile access’). As of this date, 15% of all Missouri households have zero access at all. Currently 66,583 households or about 177,617 people fall into unserved/underserved census blocks.

An assumption can be made that the Federal standard will be increased, with “unserved” reclassified as no service but not quite 25/3, “underserved” reclassified as above 25/3 but not quite 100/20, and “served” reclassified as above 100/20. Based off the December 2020 FCC data and 2010 Decennial Census information, reclassifying these definitions would place 362,967 households or around 948,853 people in the unserved/underserved category—a quantum leap backwards on the heels of Federal funds being plowed into technologies that only provided 10/1 and then 25/3 standards over the last decade.

It is also reasonably foreseeable that the Federal government will continue to “move the goalposts” regarding sufficient broadband access, and Missouri must be in a position to move forward as a result. Fortunately, the preferred method of building out broadband resources, fiber to the home (FTTH) is already future-proof and its providers will be able to keep pace with increasing Federal standards as well as consumer demand for higher speeds.

Chapter 2: Speed

As late as 2018, Missouri was ranked 49th in the nation for internet speed. While that number has improved along with overall access, speed remains a significant challenge across Missouri. Advertised rates mention the words “Up to,” but all too often real speeds measured in real time fall far short of the advertised rates. Another takeaway that no one saw coming from the COVID-19 situation was the lack of resiliency in the system itself. At one point during the period when Missouri students were sent home to learn remotely, business owners across the state noticed slower internet speeds than usual in populated areas. According to the Department of Economic Development, at any given moment, 40-45% of all available bandwidth in the State of Missouri was being soaked up by Netflix and YouTube. In the event that remote learning should take place again on such a scale, the lack of available bandwidth will prove an obstacle to normal business operations again.

In order to more accurately gauge the real speeds being used, other states have incorporated maps that demonstrate real-time usage through various means, including state-operated websites. The University of Missouri-Columbia has such a feature available today through the Missouri Resource Rail. There is no Federal equivalent to this and the FCC coverage maps in current use are appallingly inadequate in terms of accurate information as well as out of date. West Virginia currently uses a map that provides real-time data that is administered through the auspices of its Broadband Enhancement Council. Due to the deficiencies inherent in the Federal approach, it has become evident that Missouri needs to provide its own mapping resources to provide a clear picture of not only where broadband resources are located, but also what speeds are routinely being delivered across the state.

Site selectors choosing to bring businesses to different states use “desk-top eliminations” to decide whether or not to proceed further with their inquiries. One of the first eliminations is based on lack of sufficient internet. While communities like Houston and North Kansas City have introduced city-wide broadband services and Hannibal has pursued “100 Gig” certification to differentiate themselves from other communities to attract new businesses, the entire state could be pursuing similar distinctions with sufficient mapping resources that reflect actual speeds. North Kansas City at this moment offers free residential internet to most of its residents and its businesses have access to some of the fastest broadband internet speeds in the world. The net result has been a business boom that any community in Missouri could replicate.

Chapter 3: Affordability

The most significant barrier to broadband access next to complete lack of physical “last-mile” access is affordability. This is an issue across Missouri, but is most acutely felt in Missouri’s urban cores in St. Louis and Kansas City. In order to bridge this digital divide, the Federal government announced and has funded an Emergency Broadband Fund (EBB) that enables households that qualify for free or reduced lunches to obtain up to $50 a month in assistance to be able to afford broadband internet. Due to recent Congressional enactments, the EBB program will remain intact for the foreseeable future. Funding levels are expected to be at least $30 per month per household.

Unfortunately, the effectiveness of this program in Missouri has been far from satisfactory. Only 11% of Missouri households that qualify for this program have signed up; the national average itself is also appalling, at 16%. In Missouri, that means that 8 out of 9 households that qualify are not using this benefit, to the detriment of tens of thousands of Missouri students who use online resources for remote learning or the simple act of uploading homework assignments on time. The Federal guidelines governing this program leave the responsibility for publicizing this benefit up to the individual providers, some of which have taken significant measures to inform those in their service areas. Some have not. It has become evident that providers do not have a uniform approach to these programs, which is a matter that must be addressed in order to have a realistic approach of bridging the digital divide across Missouri. This is a problem wherever households qualify for free or reduced lunches, which is the threshold for inclusion in these programs. Providers can make significant strides in this area by offering more low-cost plans that can be supplemented with Federal funds.

Chapter 4: Digital Literacy and Inclusion

Another significant barrier to broadband adoption is the lack of cohesive digital literacy and inclusion efforts across Missouri. As mentioned previously, COVID-19 demonstrated the lack of digital literacy among Missouri senior citizens, who were unable to access Zoom and other platforms to attend virtual doctor's appointments during the height of the pandemic (and thereafter). Missouri authorized patients as end users of telehealth resources in 2016 and telehealth visits increased by as much as 1500% with a number of Missouri providers from 2019-2020. That improvement in the delivery of services did not apply to those who could not log on to their computers or follow the directions to activate their remote appointments. The ability to stay home and avoid other sick people is not particular to COVID; that is a 365-day a year blessing to those who are already immuno-compromised and have no business being around other sick people.

Digital literacy is also a barrier to those who have mental health issues and do not seek treatment from brick and mortar facilities due to the stigma attached to mental illness. This problem cuts across all segments of our society regardless of age. The damage caused by COVID-19-related isolation will take years to calculate, if it can ever be properly assessed.

Digital literacy is also a barrier to parents and grandparents of students who are in school who are attempting to learn remotely. Untold thousands of Missouri students lost as much as a year of instruction as a result of COVID-related measures. With the onset of more after-school academic programs, weekend programs, and summer school programs designed to increase the effectiveness of teaching and learning, more digital literacy resources will be needed in order to bridge this divide.

The nonprofit sector in Kansas City, in partnership with the Kansas City Mayor's office and other digital stakeholders, has created the capacity to go house-to-house throughout neighborhoods to assist with digital literacy. These "digital navigators" assist those who do not know how to set up email accounts or upload resumes to do so. Such entities as Kansas City Public Library (KCPL) and Mid-Continent Public Library (MCPL) provide dedicated computer terminals and training to those who do not have home access. Indeed, public libraries across the State of Missouri proved to be reliable partners throughout the pandemic, providing wi-fi hot spots across the state, as well as dedicated computer resources within their facilities.

Chapter 5: Emerging Trends

The Committee heard a variety of testimony regarding emerging trends, including the use of low-earth orbit satellites as a possible solution to last-mile access issues in areas of Missouri that will be impossible to reach with terrestrial solutions such as fiber for the foreseeable future.

Another emerging trend that will only accelerate is the need for more bandwidth to operate "smart" devices. The Committee heard testimony that the average Missouri household now uses 7 smart devices that require the internet to operate; the record household use to date is 27 devices. As technology improves and more devices use internet access to operate, the need for additional bandwidth will only increase.

Other emerging technologies that show promise with regard to access do not increase speed, but boost the distances that signals can travel. In order to deploy these technologies in true "last mile" areas that have no service at all, Missouri will need to consider a funding mechanism that will not otherwise meet 25:3 or higher standards.

Chapter 6: Accountability

The Committee heard testimony in Jefferson City and numerous examples during town hall meetings that accountability is a major issue regarding the effectiveness of existing and prior efforts to provide broadband resources to areas all across Missouri. As mentioned previously, there is widespread dissatisfaction with the Federal approach to building out broadband across the state through the reverse auction process that emphasizes quantity over quality and leaves far too many Missourians without recourse when their needs are not being met, despite the Federal government's approval of the processes in those areas which remain underserved.

Much of the frustration centers on a lack of accountability to those who are allegedly served in these areas after receiving millions upon millions in Federal funding. The Committee heard testimony from LTD, which won the lion's share of the latest USDA RDOF auction in Missouri, to the effect that it is waiting for FCC guidance before it deploys any broadband resources in Missouri at all. By winning reverse auctions, such providers freeze out Missouri-based providers who are already deploying broadband resources—and have been doing so in some cases for more than a decade. It could be argued that if a state wanted to make sure that the digital divide is never closed, it would adopt the existing Federal approach.

At one town hall, two of the speakers shared what it was like to still be using dial-up technology. As of this date, 2% of Missouri households are still dependent on those services for their internet, none of which are capable of bringing broadband resources to their homes or businesses. A cursory glance at FCC maps demonstrates how woefully inaccurate their information is; one member of the Committee took the step of pointing out areas in his home county that the FCC map reflected as “served” and identified areas of his home county that have no access at all. The lack of accountability at the Federal level is a luxury that Missouri citizens can no longer afford. Accountability measures need to be increased with regard to the State funds as well. Other states have implemented on-site surveys and Missouri should take steps to do the same in order to ensure that providers stay on-time, on-task with taxpayer-provided funding.

Chapter 7: Online Education

COVID-19 laid bare the deficiencies in online education across Missouri like no other sector of society. Hundreds of thousands of students went from in-seat instruction to online instruction with very little warning in spring semester 2020, and the test scores from 2021 prove that many lost meaningful instruction for months at a time. Students who did not have good internet access were immediately left behind in terms of instruction and many stayed behind, despite the deployment of tens of thousands of wi-fi hot spots across the state, including areas in the urban cores. Far too many of these students, rural, suburban and urban, were unable to activate the hot spots due to weak cell phone signals, which rendered the tablets they had been given to complete and upload homework and exams inoperable. This was a problem across the entire state, despite the fact that the vast majority of Missouri's public schools have broadband access through MORE.net. We cannot “hot spot” our way out of this situation.

Online education also suffered at the post-secondary level. Programs such as Western Governors University offer courses in a completely online format, but cannot enroll students who fail their minimum speed tests for course work delivery. There are some 800,000 Missouri residents who have completed some college course work without obtaining a degree. Many are seeking online degrees due to their flexibility. Many others are unable to pass the minimum speed tests. All who do not have sufficient broadband capability are being punished as a result. The same holds true for those pursuing Industry-Recognized Certificates in order to improve careers and job prospects.

Chapter 8: Telehealth

COVID-19 at once demonstrated the value of telehealth resources while pointing out other glaring deficiencies across Missouri, particularly with Seniors who do not have sufficient access or the ability to make Zoom or other virtual platforms work in their homes, which defeats the entire purpose of online appointments. The Committee heard that some providers saw a 1500% increase in the use of telehealth resources. Telehealth is here to stay, for those who can gain access to it. A possible solution that affects telehealth resources for all ages as well as those who have mental health issues is to equip public libraries, of which Missouri has more than 300, with HIPAA-compliant spaces to be able to attend their virtual doctor's appointments. This is an innovation whose time has come across Missouri.

According to AARP: 15% of Americans 50+ do not have broadband; 60% say that cost is a problem.

According to OATS, some 42% of seniors lack wireline access at home; senior adults with less than a high school diploma or an income below $25,000 are ten times more likely than the general population to be offline. In addition, Black and Latino seniors are more than 2.5 and 3.3 times more likely, respectively, to be offline.

One of the most critical lessons learned from the COVID-19 response is that telehealth is here to stay. The problem of access for Seniors is already acute and will only accelerate as the necessity of virtual visits continues across an ever-aging population. The public health implications of expanding telehealth capabilities are obvious: no one needs to be around other sick people if they have an alternative way of accessing health care. That holds true for the common cold, influenza as well as COVID-19.

Chapter 9: Workforce Development

Broadband touches and concerns all aspects of Workforce Development. COVID also exposed glaring weaknesses in Missouri regarding the ability of individuals to compete in a workforce that has struggled to get back onto its feet as a result of lay-offs and closings. An estimated 30% of all Missouri small businesses closed as a result of the pandemic response, resulting in the laying off of thousands of employees. As mentioned previously, many Missourians do not know how to operate computers even if they have access to sufficient broadband speeds. This problem is particularly acute for those who do not know how to upload a resume to apply for the thousands of jobs that have been and remain open since the beginning of the pandemic response (more than 18 months as of this writing). Digital navigators are necessary to assist with this critical element of the job search. In the Kansas City area, Goodwill Industries is helping to meet this need by providing mobile computer centers which are also staffed with digital navigators who can show job applicants how to set up email accounts, upload resumes and bookmark the most important sites for recurring use as their job searches continue.

Public libraries also have a role to play in this process. Missouri has 34 Job Centers across the state, but more than 300 public libraries, including at least one in every county of Missouri. Equipping public libraries with resources that enable them to administer proctored exams for Industry-Recognized Certificates will only accelerate the development of Missouri's workforce pipeline.

A series of regional studies headed by a retired University of Missouri Professor across the southeast portion of the state concludes that Missouri loses an estimated minimum of $400,000 for each student who does not have sufficient broadband access to complete their schooling and to compete for jobs in the existing Missouri economy. This sorely depletes the Missouri Workforce Development pipeline that the State has been working on to fill with innovative employer-centric programs and reliance on Apprenticeships, a category where Missouri ranks in the Top 3 in the United States. We cannot play to this strength without sufficient broadband internet access.

Surveys of Generation Z students, who are now moving through Missouri schools, demonstrate that as many as half believe they will and wish to work for themselves. This will create thousands of opportunities for entrepreneurship across the State every year for the foreseeable future. Many of these individuals are already attempting to run businesses from their homes. Some are unable to do so because they do not have sufficient bandwidth to take simply payments from PayPal. Missouri should be in a position to take advantage of these individual initiatives. It is not.

When the State of Missouri gave its employees the option to work from home in 2020, some 25% of the total workforce stopped going into State offices and began working from their residences. A significant number of employees who wished to work remotely were unable to do so as a result of insufficient broadband access to upload documents. The Office of Administration surveyed workers from each department and found that all of them had at least 90% job satisfaction among those who were able to work remotely. The flexibility of such work was highly attractive, as was the increased savings in time and money from not having to commute. Remote work is here to stay, but only for those who have sufficient broadband capacity to stay home in the first place. This is true across the private as well as the government sectors. In order to accommodate this trend and compete for workers from across the globe, Missouri must have sufficient broadband access to attract and keep an increasingly important remote work force.

Chapter 10: Precision Agriculture

Agriculture remains Missouri's #1 economic driver and lack of Rural broadband access has been a thorn in the flesh of Missouri producers for decades already. Missouri has the second most farms of any state and has the most diverse crop base of any state in the Union. Missouri producers have become dependent on GPS to decrease input costs and improve yields. The Director of Agriculture testified before the Committee that the data streams generated by precision equipment has increased to terabytes for a farm field and several megabits for each kernel of corn. A new industry is emerging to interpret these data streams—none of which can be generated without sufficient broadband internet access. This affects cow/calf and hog operations as well due to their dependence on the ability to access veterinary records for their animals in real time. Missouri farmers have noted that they must return to “line of sight” plowing where “the internet ends,” the same as they have done since the beginning of recorded history. The difference is that the cost of their equipment has rapidly increased due to technological advances, none of which matter if the producer does not have access to the data. Neighboring states, most notably Iowa, have begun aggressively to address this “last acre” access gap.

Precision agriculture has improved fertilizer placement efficiency by an estimated 7 percent and has the potential to further improve an additional 14 percent with more widespread adoption. This not only saves the farmer money on fertilizer; it also improves water and soil quality and reduces greenhouse gas emissions. Similar benefits accrue in terms of herbicide, fossil fuel, and water use.

Only 82 percent of Missouri farms have internet service in any form. On average, 70 percent of Hispanic-operated farms and 62 percent of Black-owned farms have internet access.

Increased yields increase revenue for school districts as well as enable family farms to continue to operate into the next generation. The advances in GPS technology are literally creating new jobs to interpret the data, another positive development for agricultural producers. All progress in this vital area of Missouri’s economic future hinges on the availability of sufficient broadband access.

Chapter 11: Economic Development/Entrepreneurship

As mentioned previously, site selectors eliminate Missouri communities and regions from consideration if they do not have good broadband access. It is impossible to determine how many jobs Missouri has lost, or how limited existing businesses have been in their ability to expand as a result of poor broadband internet access.

The increase of the remote workforce is only going to accelerate as people who have grown accustomed to the flexibility of remote work seek to continue those arrangements permanently. Demographers have indicated that a number of Missouri counties, many along the Iowa and Arkansas borders, have lost significant population over the last decade. These areas also have poor access to broadband resources. If demography is destiny, the lack of sufficient broadband will condemn more Rural Missouri communities to oblivion. Conversely, areas that enjoy excellent broadband resources are seeing increases in population. The most interesting example of this is Ralls County in Northeast Missouri, whose Presiding Commissioner testified before the Committee that the tax receipts coming into Ralls County as a result of population growth have led to a movement to roll back some of its property taxes. Ralls County’s Co-Op has been deploying broadband aggressively for more than a decade and offer 1 gig up and down across its entire service area. As a result of this deployment, the population slide has stopped and the Co-Op is within 400 households of providing broadband internet to its entire service area. Ideally, every county in Missouri would be able to tell a similar story.

Younger Missourians who wish to work for themselves and start their own businesses cannot do so without sufficient internet resources. Those who do stay put in Missouri are leading a rebound in Rural areas now known as the “Brain Gain,” as opposed to the Brain Drain that has been experienced for the last 25 years. Those who wish to work for themselves and participate in the remote workforce cannot do so without sufficient broadband access.

According to a recent Purdue study, every $1 spent on broadband equals a $4 return into Indiana’s economy. The implications of lack of access are obvious; Missouri cannot expect to increase its revenue base without sufficient broadband access.

Chapter 12: Resource Partners

Missouri is blessed with a variety of resource partners who are already working to close the digital divide. This list includes MACOG, the Missouri Association of Councils of Government, the umbrella group of the 19 Regional Planning Commissions that interact with every type of government, from townships to the USDA, and were a major component of the effort to roll out broadband a decade ago. Many of the individuals involved with that experience are still working for RPCs today. MACOG assisted the work of this Committee by providing spaces for town halls across the State of Missouri. MACOG has also assisted County Commissioners, Mayors and City Managers and Administrators with disbursement of CARES Act funding as well as engaging with the same stakeholders to plan for the most strategic disbursement of ARPA Funds and to begin planning for receipt of infrastructure funds recently passed by Congress.

The State Broadband Office has received high marks for the performance of its Director, Tim Arbeiter, who will have left the office before this report is published. The process that has received uniform praise is the challenge process implemented by Director Arbeiter. His office has also successfully disbursed State Broadband funds to dozens of providers across the State who are proficient at last-mile access.

Kansas City has assembled an impressive array of stakeholders to bridge the digital divide through the use of digital navigators down to the neighborhood level, including house-to-house visits to equip individuals to enter the workforce and operate equipment needed for telehealth appointments. Stakeholders include the Kansas City Mayor's Office, Kansas City Public Library, Mid-Continent Public Library, and Goodwill Industries.

Missouri's public libraries have bridged the digital divide in every area of the state, be it urban, suburban or rural. They have assisted with distribution of hot spots for Missouri students, have provided dedicated computer access and assisted with digital navigation in many areas of the state as well.

University of Missouri Extension has provided assistance in several areas of the state by facilitating county-wide discussions centered on broadband needs and has partnered with other University System stakeholders to create the Broadband Resource Rail, complete with mapping that is superior to anything produced by the FCC. A retired University of Missouri economist, Abner Womack, has provided granular studies of southeast Missouri counties in the Southeast Missouri and Ozark Foothills Regional Planning Commission service areas that demonstrate Missouri loses a minimum of $400,000 per pupil for every student who leaves Rural areas for other states.

Missouri's counties and municipalities are proving to be resource partners on a level with the State of Missouri itself in terms of funding and the ability to bridge the digital divide quickly through direct investment of CARES Act and now ARPA funds. The Ralls County and Shelby County Presiding Commissioners testified before the Committee about the processes they used to determine which areas of their counties to fund with both CARES Act and ARPA disbursements. The Ralls County Presiding Commissioner spoke for many stakeholders across the state when he explained that he and his fellow Commissioners authorized broadband funding in their counties because they do not sit around and wait for the Federal government to tell them what to do.

The Committee heard testimony from Houston, Marshall and North Kansas City regarding their efforts to provide broadband internet for their residents. Houston is advertising itself as Missouri's "Work From Anywhere" destination community and publicly states it would like to exit the internet service provider business. North Kansas City did exit the business and still provides free internet to its residents. As mentioned previously, this has resulted in a business boom that can be replicated anywhere in Missouri.

Missouri's public schools, the vast majority of which are linked to broadband internet through MOREnet, have served as resource partners throughout the pandemic, using such innovations as school buses with hot spots to travel their normal routes to provide students with the opportunity to upload assignments during regular school hours.

Missouri's Electric Cooperatives, which were literally born during the Depression when the Rural Electrification Act brought electricity to millions of American farms that had been in the dark until that time, have also provided significant assistance in several areas of the state. Among the most significant broadband providers are Co-Mo Electric on the south side of the Lake of the Ozarks and Ralls County Electric in Northeast Missouri. Both supply fiber to the home across their service areas and Ralls County is reportedly within 400 households of providing 1 Gigabit Up and Down service to all of its customers. Ralls County was one of the few entities that was "shovel ready" with ARRA funds in the last years of the 2000's and has been deploying broadband internet ever since.

Chapter 13: Federal Funding

As has been discussed previously, Federal funding has been most welcome across Missouri, but has not delivered as much as it could have if the reverse auction process did not place such a high emphasis on “checking the box” within census blocks and neglecting quality, higher-speed internet instead of deploying fixed wireless platforms that have not delivered anticipated results outside their limited radiuses. As of this writing, Missouri is in line to receive at least another $100 million in broadband funding: perhaps more based on Missouri’s middling rank in so many categories denoting deficiencies.

Of special note is the prospect of Missouri’s HBCU’s, Harris-Stowe University in St. Louis City and Lincoln University in Jefferson City, receiving millions in funding to build out broadband resources as far as 15 miles from their campuses. The impact that Harris-Stowe could have on the urban core of St. Louis City and the southern area of North County is considerable in and of itself and could prove to be a game-changer to bridge the digital divide in the urban core. Lincoln University shows similar promise for mid-Missouri.

Chapter 14: Competition

Missouri’s State standard of 25:3 is designed to be a floor, not a ceiling, for State funding. The Committee took testimony from smaller providers that can provide less than 25:3 access to some of the most remote areas of the state, but will not be allowed to participate in Federal or State funding programs due to their lack of speed. Since broadband internet is not regulated, competition has been fierce in some areas and non-existent in others. A constant complaint from Missourians is that there are internet trunk lines in their front yards, but they cannot obtain access to their homes and businesses. The Committee heard testimony from MoDOT that it laid in over 1300 miles of fiber 25 years ago, of which it claims the vast majority cannot be used due to Federal restrictions. Considering that some 1100 miles of fiber are located in the St. Louis area alone, obtaining a release from those restrictions would enable public-private partnerships to build out fiber into areas where the digital divide has been and continues to be acute.

Another disturbing wrinkle of the MoDOT story is that its network is for all intents and purposes controlled by Lumen, the successor in interest to CenturyLink, which was the successor in interest to the original firm that went bankrupt while building out the MoDOT fiber network, and has lain comparatively dormant for 25 years in some of the most rural areas of Missouri. This anomaly must be thoroughly addressed.

For many years, municipal utilities following into areas annexed by growing cities have been hamstrung by incumbent providers that are not willing to provide broadband internet themselves, but refuse to allow municipal utilities to provide it, either. The people caught in this cross-fire therefore continue to do without. This impediment to deployment must also be thoroughly addressed.

The specter of overbuild is equally troublesome in areas of the state that are already served according to the statutory definition of 25:3. The previously mentioned challenge process has succeeded in large measure to stop this practice, but the increasing standards from 25:3 at the Federal level and the anticipated companion increase at the State level will doubtless set off a new round of overbuild in areas that can use the competition, but will draw resources away from areas that have no access at all.

Challenges

There are a number of major challenges facing Missouri’s efforts to vault from the middle of the pack into the Top 10 states in the Union in terms of broadband access. Lack of decent mapping resources is one; continued suffering from flawed Federal census-block methodology and reverse auctions that see out-of-state providers making serious money but not making serious progress toward bridging the digital divide is another.

New FCC maps are planned to be released in 2022. However, without current granular level data and updated FCC maps, there is a difficulty in planning broadband expansion projects now in order to meet the timeframes required by ARPA. In addition, FCC maps have shown as much as 15% false positives for coverage.

A recurring theme from testimony and town hall meetings has been the need to simplify the make-ready process for deploying broadband fiber (both buried and aerial). Middle mile access is plentiful, but in some cases, 75% of it is not being used in areas of the state where access is severely deficient. The attitude of some providers that they will not provide broadband and neither will anyone else in their service areas is a serious challenge that serves no one. While Broadband internet is not regulated as a utility, there is zero appetite among providers and stakeholders to subject this necessary resource to a blizzard of new regulations. While the State Broadband Fund has a claw-back period after 3 years that was enacted in 2020, the State Broadband Office itself is not sufficiently staffed to conduct site visits to ensure that fund recipients are deploying on time, on task. On the plus side, middle-mile carriers have indicated a willingness to use resources at full capacity and at the Federal level, railroads have also indicated a willingness to assist with deployment efforts that cross their rights of way.

Other states have implemented needed changes that promote competition, fairness and universal access. Ultimately, Missouri must join their ranks, and with the sheer volume of funds flowing from the Federal Government, 2022 is the best year to make necessary and long overdue changes.

As part of the information gathering process, providers were asked to distribute information on take rates, network capacity, average speeds, redundancies on existing networks, plans for increasing take rates, counties served, expansion, federal and state funds accepted, length of construction delays, length of back orders on materials, and advertising materials.

As of this writing, providers who have directly addressed these questions are Chariton Valley, Google Fiber, AT&T, Wisper, and the Missouri Cable Telecommunications Association (MCTA).

Starlink declined the invitation to testify and i3 Broadband did not attend the hearing it had been scheduled for.

Findings of Fact and Recommendations

In order to begin the process of closing Missouri's digital divide once and for all, using the once in a lifetime infusion of Federal funds that the Parson Administration has pledged more than $400 million to utilize in FY 2023, the Interim Committee on Broadband Development is making the following recommendations:

1. Within the General Assembly, creation of Broadband Committees in both chambers to facilitate the legislative process and provide a measure of legislative oversight;
2. The creation of a Broadband development council to ensure accountability, meaningful oversight and stakeholder engagement as well as to provide mapping resources that provide real-time transparency to Missouri citizens regarding where broadband internet is, and where it is not;
3. Significant fiscal assistance for the Missouri Broadband Office and Broadband Fund to engage in best practices, including site visits to providers deploying broadband using State funds, as well as provide substantial matching funds through its grant process to enable providers to deploy broadband resources within the next three years;
4. A revised State Broadband minimum standard that will be flexible enough to move in concert with Federal standards while carving out exceptions for the most remote last-mile access until such time as technology enables phasing out of such methods;
5. Overhaul of right-of-way access, make-ready costs, pole attachment disputes, "Dig Once" policies, processes and deadlines that will enable carriers to engage in public-private partnerships to light dark fiber and that will enable providers to bury and string fiber without undue delays. This includes an overhaul of the existing MoDOT fiber network and a review of obstacles to deployment by networks owned by political subdivisions. Further, common sense concepts such as authorizing structures owned by the State of Missouri and political subdivisions thereof to assist with broadband deployment must be considered.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 101st GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FOURTH DAY, TUESDAY, JANUARY 11, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Adam Schnelting.

Almighty God,

As we gather in this honored chamber to steer the ship of state, we ask that You grant us wisdom and understanding, knowledge and insight to effectively execute the duties that our posts demand. Grant us success in achieving our mutually shared goal of helping our neighbors and improving the lives of all Missourians.

George Washington once said, "Of all the dispositions and habits which lead to political prosperity, religion and morality are indispensable supports."

We know this to be true. That's why we ask that You shed abroad in our hearts, Your love. For You and for our fellow man.

We pray that in these extraordinary times You grant each of us the discernment essential for statesmanship. Lead us in the paths that honor You, honor our commitment to our Constitution, and honor our American way of life.

I pray this in Jesus' name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the third day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 101st GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTH DAY, THURSDAY, JANUARY 13, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Jered Taylor.

Lord, we come before You, taking time out of our day, to pause and seek Your guidance. We recognize the importance of this time and the impact of a prayer. Lord, we come to You asking for healing: Heal our country. We are broken and divided, and we pray for restoration, with one another, and that we may be restored in You. We know that only You can provide the healing that we so desperately need. We pray for healing for Your people. Many people are sick and hurting; we pray for their physical healing. Many, if not all, of us have suffered the pain of loss over a close friend, colleague, or loved one. We pray for strength and that our eyes may be turned to You and that we may glorify You. We pray for the decisions we make, that they be right for our state and right in Your eyes. We thank You and praise You.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the fifth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

ONE HUNDRED FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the STATE OF MISSOURI

SECOND REGULAR SESSION

FIRST DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 5, 2022

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Brad Hudson.

Dear Heavenly Father,

Once again Your sovereign hand has led us here to this beautiful building in order that we may do the people's work. You have given us life, health, strength, and liberty. Please help us to make good use of these gifts in order that we may serve You, and one another. Please grant us also wisdom that we may be worthy of this calling that You have placed on our lives. May we strive most of all not for position or popularity, but to be good, to be faithful, and to serve well.

Give us pure motives, honorable conversation, hearts of courage, and eyes that are ever toward You.

In Jesus' name I pray. Amen!

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

LETTERS OF RESIGNATION

November 29, 2021

The Honorable Governor Michael Parson
201 W. Capitol Avenue, Room 218
Jefferson City, MO 65101

Dear Governor Parson:

For the past 7 years I have proudly served the citizens of District 114 in the Missouri House of Representatives. Throughout my years of service, I have striven to make sure I represented the people of my district with honor and integrity always keeping their voices in mind when working on or passing legislation. I stood tall and firm on many issues that were important to my district and necessarily popular but were the right things to do. I poured my heart and soul into a being a State Representative, and I worked tirelessly to do this job and serve to the best of my ability. I was not sent to Jefferson City to just take the easy road. I was sent to make tough decisions and give voice to my constituents. I never backed down from challenges and always tried to work with my colleagues.

Throughout my tenure I have had the ability to work on many different issues and have passed approximately 27 pieces of legislation into law. Some of the most important and impactful ones were expanding newborn screening to save the lives of countless children in our state, the First Time Homebuyers Savings Account to help more people realize the dream of home ownership, various transportation legislation to maintain and repair our roads, bridges, and ports, PTSD Awareness for our military, LEO's, first responders and others who suffer every day and many others to help our small businesses thrive and give protection to consumers. I have been honored to be the first woman appointed as Chair of the House Transportation Committee. In addition, I am a retired teacher with 25 years of service in education and have continuously worked on issues to help children and families in our state.

As I am nearing the end of my term an opportunity has presented itself that will allow me to continue to serve Missouri while spending more time with my family and focus on my passion of serving and advocating for children in our state. After much reflection, discussion, and prayer with my husband, I have accepted the position as Child Advocate and look forward to continuing my service to the state and its citizens. I want to thank the people of my district for having faith in me and allowing me to serve them. It has been a tremendous journey, and I am grateful for the long-lasting friendships I have made over the years.

It is with gratitude and sincerity that I now submit my resignation from the Missouri House of Representatives as a State Representative and the Lady from Jefferson, District 114, effective at 11:59 PM on November 30, 2021.

The Honorable Governor Mike Parson
Office of the Governor

Jefferson City, MO 65101

Dear Governor Parson,

This letter is to inform you that as of 11:59 p.m. on Sunday, January 2, 2022, I will be resigning my position in the Missouri House of Representatives to accept an appointment to serve as Director of the Missouri Department of Revenue.

It has been an honor to represent the people of Cape Girardeau in the Missouri Senate and the Missouri House of Representatives. It has been a privilege to serve alongside the many men and women who work in the Capitol every day to shape laws that impact every Missourian, and I want to thank everyone in the Missouri House and the Missouri Senate, for the chance to work with them.

I truly appreciate the trust you have placed in me through your nomination to serve in your Cabinet, and I want you to know that as the next Director of the Missouri Department of Revenue, I will work to continue the great strides that have been made in transforming the agency into an efficient department that provides excellent service to the people of this state.

Serving people is something I have dedicated my life to, whether during my time serving in the U.S. Air Force, teaching students at Southeast Missouri State University, or legislating in the Missouri General Assembly. I look forward to continuing my public service in the position of Director of the Department of Revenue, and I am humbled to be given this opportunity.

Sincerely,

/s/ Wayne Wallingford

GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION

October 25, 2021

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 27, authorizes the Governor to control the rate at which any appropriation is expended by allotment and, further, authorizes the Governor to reduce the expenditures of the state or any of its agencies below their appropriations whenever the actual revenues are less than the revenue estimates upon which the appropriations were based; and

WHEREAS, in addition to the power to control the rate of expenditure established in Article IV, Section 27, three percent of each appropriation, with the exception of amounts for personal service to pay salaries fixed by law, shall be set aside pursuant to section 33.290, RSMo, as a reserve fund and not subject to expenditure except with the approval of the Governor; and

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 27.2, provides that the Governor notify the General Assembly "whenever the rate at which any appropriation shall be expended is not equal quarterly allotments, the sum of which shall be equal to the amount of the appropriation"; and

WHEREAS, due to a variety of factors, including the three percent reserve that is legally required by section 33.290, RSMo, the rate at which most appropriations are expended is not in "equal quarterly allotments, the sum of which shall be equal to the amount of the appropriation"; and

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 27.3, provides that the Governor notify the General Assembly "when the governor reduces one or more items or portions of items of appropriation of money as a result of actual revenues being less than the revenue estimates upon which the appropriations were based."

NOW THEREFORE, I, Michael L. Parson, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI, pursuant to Article IV, Section 27, do hereby make the following notification to the One Hundred First General Assembly of the State of Missouri:

I hereby notify the General Assembly, pursuant to Article IV, Section 27.2 of the Missouri Constitution, that through the first quarter of fiscal year 2022, the rate of expenditure for each of the appropriation lines in the fiscal year 2022 budget attached as Exhibit A is not in equal quarterly allotments, the sum of which shall be equal to the amount of the appropriation.

I further notify the General Assembly, pursuant to Article IV, Section 27.3 of the Missouri Constitution, that I have taken no action to permanently reduce one or more items or portions of items of appropriation of money as a result of actual revenues being less than the revenue estimates upon which the appropriations were based in the fiscal year 2022 budget.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Missouri, in the City of Jefferson, this 25th day of October, 2021.

/s/ Michael L. Parson
Governor

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 101st GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SECOND DAY, THURSDAY, JANUARY 6, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Wiemann in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Doug Richey.

Our Heavenly Creator, we express our gratitude to You, the God of all glory and power, for placing upon our shoulders the mantle of responsibility as members of Missouri's House of Representatives. May we live up to this responsibility by pursuing that which Philippians 4:8 describes as true, honorable, right, pure, beautiful, commendable, excellent, and worthy of praise.

May Missouri's citizens see in each of us a determination in this pursuit. Please forgive us where we fail. Please strengthen us where we are weak. Please embolden us where we are timid. We ask as well that You provide wisdom and strength to the leadership of this chamber. Theirs is a lonely and weighty task. Be with them and their families in Your grace. In Jesus' name I pray.

And the House says, "Amen."

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the first day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

Representative Grier offered House Resolution No. 3279.
Representative Plocher offered House Resolution No. 3286.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 3286

WHEREAS, under Article III, Section 45 of the Constitution of Missouri, when the number of representatives to which the state is entitled in the House of the Congress of the United States under the census is certified to the governor, the general assembly shall by law divide the state into districts corresponding with the number of representatives to which it is entitled, which districts shall be composed of contiguous territory as compact and as nearly equal in population as may be; and

WHEREAS, due to the unique nature of Congressional apportionment bills, which divide the state into Congressional districts, it is necessary to adopt temporary rules for the consideration of such bills:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Missouri House of Representatives, One Hundred First General Assembly, Second Regular Session, adopt certain temporary rules for the purpose of considering Congressional apportionment bills; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that, notwithstanding House Rule 49 or any other rule to the contrary, neither substitute amendments nor amendments to amendments shall be in order for any Congressional apportionment bill other than for technical corrections; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a four-hour time limitation be designated on the total time of floor debate allowed for the purpose of considering any Congressional apportionment bill for perfection. Such time shall be divided equally between, and controlled by, the chair of the special committee on redistricting and the ranking minority member of such committee, or their respective designees. The chair of the special committee on redistricting shall have the right to have the final one minute of designated time. If time has been allocated and unused by either side after any Congressional apportionment bill has been discussed and no member from that side is seeking recognition to further discuss such bill, the Speaker may declare additional time waived and recognize the members of the other side to complete the use of their time. Nothing in this rule shall entitle any member to speak longer than the House Rules otherwise allow; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that, notwithstanding House Rule 99, props or visual aids that depict Congressional apportionment maps shall be permitted on the floor of the House while the House is in session and considering any Congressional apportionment bill. All such props or visual aids and the location of their display shall require approval by the Speaker; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that, notwithstanding House Rule 49(2) or any other rule to the contrary, an amendment identical to one previously decided on a Congressional apportionment bill shall be in order; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that, notwithstanding House Rule 49(4) or any other rule to the contrary, an amendment that effectually replaces the underlying Congressional apportionment bill or committee substitute shall be in order; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that, notwithstanding House Rule 49(1)(b), any amendments to a Congressional apportionment bill shall be distributed prior to Monday, January 17, 2022, at 2 p.m.; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that any amendments to a Congressional apportionment bill shall comply with all legal requirements for apportionment and a point of order may be raised that an amendment offered would result in an unlawful apportionment; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that all other Rules of the Missouri House of Representatives, One Hundred First General Assembly, shall apply to the consideration of Congressional apportionment bills as such rules are appropriate and not in conflict with the rules adopted herein.

101ST GENERAL ASSEMBLY

EIGHTH DAY, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 2022

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicky, Chaplain.

We take courage and say, "The Lord is my helper, I will not fear what man shall do unto me." (Hebrews 13:6)

Almighty God, we thank You for this new fall day fresh from Your hand and pray You will help us to live it well. Cleanse our hearts and clear our minds, that we may walk together with You and with our fellow representatives and citizens.

Grant that we may always be promoters of justice, peace and knowledge. In so doing, may we seek to make this state a better place in which we can live together safely and securely.

We pray for our Missouri, gratefully for the heritage of faith and freedom which is ours, humbly that we may prove ourselves worthy of this history, to guide our people in right paths with true benefits for the good of all.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION SPECIAL MESSAGE

WHEREAS, on August 22, 2022, I issued an official call for a special session to make historic income tax cuts and to extend key agriculture tax credit programs for a minimum of six years; and

WHEREAS, on Tuesday, September 6, 2022, the First Extraordinary Session of the Second Regular Session of the One Hundred First General Assembly convened; and

WHEREAS, agriculture is Missouri's top economic industry by contributing over $93.7 billion, with over $55 billion generated from agriculture inputs and $34 billion in agriculture value-added products; and

WHEREAS, Missouri's agriculture industry employs nearly 460,000 citizens that support many of the state's top agricultural commodities including soybeans, corn, cattle and calves, hogs, and turkeys; and

WHEREAS, the Show-Me State is 2nd in the United States for number of farms with over 95,000 farms covering two-thirds of the state's total land acreage, nearly all of which are family owned and operated; and

WHEREAS, Missouri farmers not only feed Missourians, but also help feed the world by exporting commodities to other countries, providing critical aid while global fuel supply shortages occur surrounding the global Russia-Ukraine crisis; and

WHEREAS, in order to further support and promote agricultural opportunities in Missouri and support Missouri family farms, certainty and longevity are needed for our key agriculture programs to attract additional agricultural investment to Missouri; and

WHEREAS, Missouri families and farmers would greatly benefit from additional tax reductions to help them manage rising national and global prices; and

WHEREAS, additional specific agriculture-related reforms are needed and those reforms have been vetted during the last regular legislative session, are widely supported among members of the Missouri General Assembly, and will also aid in supporting Missouri communities and farmers; and

WHEREAS, the Missouri General Assembly recently recognized many of these reforms as requiring immediate action to promote agricultural economic opportunities in the state.

FIFTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

He who gives heed to the word will prosper, and happy is he who trusts in the Lord. (Proverbs 16:20)

O God, our creator, once more in this historic chamber we respond to the call to prayer and, in the quiet of this moment, draw near to You. Make us aware of Your presence as a spirit, a sustaining power, a refuge, and a strength in the time of stress.

We pray for our state, that it may be guided and governed by Your goodness and blessing. Grant that all who call themselves Missourians may be led in the way of truth, along the path of good will, and may hold the faith of our political life in a deep unity of purpose.

Bless our governor, our lieutenant governor, our speaker, our senate, the members of this body, and all who labor with them. Keep them calm and steady, full of faith in You and in the humble service of our state.

And the House says, "Amen!"

ONE HUNDRED FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the
STATE OF MISSOURI

SECOND REGULAR SESSION
FIRST EXTRAORDINARY SESSION

FIRST DAY, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 2022

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Unto Thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul. (Psalm 25:1)

O God, our everlasting light, who is the truth that keeps us free and the love that makes us good, grant us the faith to see life as it is, the strength to change for good what we can change for good, and the ability to see what is before us.

We pass through this world but once. Any good we can do, any kindness we can show, any help we can give to You, help us to do it now, for we shall not pass this way nor live through this day again.

May we the representatives of our citizens, in loyalty to You and our beloved state, keep our lives committed to the noble goal to represent all the people of Missouri.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

LETTER OF RESIGNATION

July 1, 2022

Dear Mr. Speaker,

This letter serves to submit my resignation to the Missouri House of Representatives.

It has truly been an honor to serve the citizens of the 140th District. They are some of the finest people I have ever met. To be a part of the process that helped bring positive change to our community and to assist with many of the personal struggles of my constituents is something I will forever treasure.

For many years, it has been my humble honor to have served the Lord by bringing medical care to thousands of forgotten citizens in SW Missouri: the homeless, our Veterans, the impoverished and uninsured. Care that helped alleviate the unspeakable pain many people lived in, helping to save lives from uncontrolled chronic diseases, healing wounds and saving limbs from amputation. The most rewarding work I have ever done.

I am also very honored to have been involved in helping support the Assistant Physicians, a program I hope will eventually be implemented nationwide. Countless amazing individuals that sacrificed years of their lives to become a doctor were left in devastation because of our severe residency shortage. This tragedy left them stranded with no ability to practice but were still required to pay back hundreds of thousands of dollars in student loans. Missouri was a trailblazer with this phenomenal healthcare solution. I pray that the value of this program will one day be welcomed and appreciated. These valuable doctors are a resource that we cannot afford to lose.

Kind Regards,

/s/ Tricia Derges

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, on May 30, 2022, the General Assembly adjourned pursuant to Article III, Section 20(a) of the Missouri Constitution; and

WHEREAS, agriculture is Missouri's top economic industry by contributing over $93.7 billion, with over $55 billion generated from agriculture inputs and $34 billion in agriculture value-added products; and

WHEREAS, Missouri's agriculture industry employs nearly 460,000 citizens that support many of the state's top agricultural commodities including soybeans, corn, cattle and calves, hogs, and turkeys; and

WHEREAS, the Show-Me State is 2nd in the United States for number of farms with over 95,000 farms covering two-thirds of the state's total land acreage, nearly all of which are family owned and operated; and

WHEREAS, Missouri farmers not only feed Missourians, but also help feed the world by exporting commodities to other countries, providing critical aid while global fuel supply shortages occur surrounding the global Russia-Ukraine crisis; and

WHEREAS, in order to further support and promote agricultural opportunities in Missouri and support Missouri family farms, certainty and longevity are needed for our key agriculture programs to attract additional agricultural investment to Missouri; and

WHEREAS, all Missouri families are impacted by agriculture, and the costs of food, fuel, and other household goods have increased over 8.5% in the past twelve months, adding to the financial strain placed on farmers and families; and

WHEREAS, Missouri has taken a fiscally conservative approach to managing our state finances by balancing our budget every year, all while reducing individual income taxes in 2018, 2019, and 2022; and

WHEREAS, the current individual income tax top rate is 5.3%, and the fiscally disciplined decisions my administration and the General Assembly have made over the last several years have positioned us to provide additional relief to Missouri citizens by further reducing taxes; and

WHEREAS, Missouri families and farmers would greatly benefit from additional tax reductions to help them manage rising national and global prices.

NOW, THEREFORE, on the extraordinary occasion that exists in the State of Missouri:

I, MICHAEL L. PARSON, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI, pursuant to the authority vested in me as Governor by the Constitution of the State of Missouri, do, by this Proclamation, convene the One Hundred First General Assembly in the First Extraordinary Session of the Second Regular Session; and
